

Special Clinic Dates Scheduled

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The Oregon State School for the deaf will hold its fourth annual preschool clinic on April 15, 16 and 17. It is for parents of deaf and hard of hearing children.

This clinic is primarily for the parents of prospective pupils. We are asking the parents to come and bring their child with them and spend these three days at the school for the deaf.

Contact the Morrow County Health Department for details, telephone 792.

The crippled children's clinic will be held May 5 and 6 at the Umatilla Health Department S. W. 3rd and Frazier St., Pendleton, Oregon. The clinic is staffed by the orthopedic specialist and personnel from the University of Oregon Medical School of Portland.

Morrow county appointments are given for Monday afternoon May 5th at 1 p. m. Any child with a chronic orthopedic defect is eligible for consultation and diagnosis. Limited number of applications are still available. Any one wishing an appointment please contact the Health department, courthouse, Heppner before April 18.

An invitation has been sent to all organizations to the county-wide meeting for the formation of a Citizen's Advisory Council to the Public Health Nursing Program. If any organization did not receive an invitation please contact the Health Department, Courthouse, phone 792, giving name of organization, and the president's name. We do not want to miss anyone.

A Regional Conference on Maternity Nursing will be held on Thursday April 17, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at St. Anthony's Hospital, S. E. Court Place, Pendleton, Oregon. This conference is open to all graduate nurses and is sponsored by the Oregon State Nurses Association District Number 7.

Further information may be obtained from Martha Tapanainen, phone 792, Heppner.

Local Bank Figures Show Deposit, Loan Gain Over Last Year

Quarterly statement of condition figures released by the Heppner branch of the First National Bank of Portland show that on March 31, 1952, deposits at the branch were $5,714,053 and loans were $1,161,509. Announcement of the totals was made by Howard Bryant, manager of the branch.

Released at the same time were comparable totals for the branch for March 31, 1951. On that date, deposits were $5,154,723 and loans were $1,045,080.

Further figures show that on March 31, 1952, deposits at the First National Bank of Portland with its 46 statewide banking offices were $533,436,827, loans were $227,042,952 and resources were $378,560,387.

In releasing these figures, F. N. Belgrano, Jr., president of First National, reported that all three figures represented increase over a year ago. Over March 31, 1951, deposits at the bank have increased $30,167,638, loans have increased $35,345,992 and resources have increased $30,377,780.

Also released at the same time were figures for the First National Bank group, consisting of the First National Bank of Portland and its 46 statewide banking offices and 15 affiliated banks with 18 offices. On March 31, 1952, total deposits for the group were $327,044,659 and resources were $709,968,145. These figures represent increases over March 31, 1951 of $34,086,090 in deposits, $42,729,783 in loans and $36,097,906 in resources.

Mrs. Agnes Curran has returned to Heppner after an extended stay in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzpatrick of Pendleton were visitors in Heppner on Wednesday.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong were her nephews, Lowell and Laverne Winters and their families from McNary. They left Monday for their homes near Spokane but plan to return to McNary after the high waters recede on the Columbia. They will continue their work on the dam where they have been employed for the past several months.

Mrs. Mary Stout departed the first of the week for Kelso, Wash., where she will remain for a time at the home of her son, Everett. Mrs. Stout plans to go to California to visit relatives a little later in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Turner had as their guests overnight Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Warad of Gresham.

Luncheon Plans Laid at Boardman

By Mrs. Flossie Coats

The Boardman Ladies Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon April 2nd in the church basement. Plans were made for the luncheon to be served for the Tillicum Club at the Fifth District Conference which will be held in Boardman April nineteenth.

On March 14th miscellaneous articles were donated by local people and sold at auction in the sale yards at Hermiston through Mr. Anson and Rose Marple. All proceeds going to the benefit of the 4-H building in Boardman. Mr. Anson selling with no commission. The Greenfield Grange and H. E. C. committee sponsored a smorgasbord and dance March 22nd. Music was furnished and mostly donated by irrigator people. All proceeds going also for the 4-H building. The North Morrow County 4-H Council and 4-H Club members are very thankful for this, as the club house is needed badly in this vicinity, and wish to thank all who helped.

The "Mississippians" a colored quartet entertained the Boardman school in song and music Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Morrow County Pomona met Saturday April 5th with the Lexington Grange for an all day meeting. During the Lecture hour District Deputy Vern Lantz put on a demonstration of the floor work. Four subordinate members were given the fifth degree, followed by Lexington Grange exemplifying the first and second degrees on six candidates. This being the first degree work in the contest for the year 1952. Several visiting members from Umatilla County were present for the day. Among them was the Umatilla Pomona Master Mrs. Tillery. Going from Boardman were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, Mrs. Ed. Kunze, Mrs. Anna Skoubo and Mrs. Claud Coats.
