Churches Hold Easter Parties For Children and Mothers

As has been the custom for many years, Easter parties were held Saturday afternoon at most of the local churches for the small fry and their mothers. At All Saints Episcopal Church the Sunday School faculty entertained with a picture show and an egg hunt for the youngsters and a tea for mothers. Assisting: Mrs. Claude Graham, Sunday School superintendent, were Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. R. Stephen Thompson, Mrs. Harold Erwin, Mrs. Paul Brown, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Mrs. R. B. Rice.

The Beginners and Primary Departments at the Christian Church, assisted by the junior choir, presented a program of recitations and songs followed by an egg hunt and refreshments for the children and a tea for the mothers. Mrs. E. R. Huston and Mrs. Earl Soward poured. Mrs. Theta Stratton, Mrs. Joe Hughes, Mrs. Clara B. Gertson and Mrs. Robert Walker were in charge of arrangements.

Children of the Methodist Sunday school were entertained at a party and an egg hunt during the afternoon.

Heppner Couple Wed In Lewiston Ceremony

Coming as a surprise to friends was the marriage of Mrs. Mabel Burkenbine and Marion Hayden, both of Heppner, in Lewiston, Idaho.

At a 4 o'clock ceremony in the Episcopal church in Lewiston, Mrs. Burkenbine became the bride of Mr. Hayden with an Episcopal rector reading the wedding service in the presence of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Drake.

The bride wore a rose formal with lilies of the valley corsage. After a honeymoon spent in traveling, the couple will be at home in Mr. Hayden's house on North Gale street.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

A bridal shower was given last week for Mrs. Darrell McLachlan (Delores Keithley) at the home of her mother, Mrs. Howard Keithley on West Water street. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Lovgren, Mrs. Archie Alderman and Mrs. Clyde Pettyjohn. Refreshments of angel cake and coffee were served.

Soroptimists Observe Fourth Anniversary

The Soroptimist Club of Heppner celebrated its fourth anniversary Thursday at a "Yesteryear Party" at the home of Miss Leta Humphreys on N. Court street. Members came dressed in gowns that were considered "high style" in the Gay Nineties or in their wedding or graduation gowns. The evening was spent in reminiscence over olden times, viewing old jewelry and mulling over old pictures and high school annuals. Mrs. Ethel Adams, newly elected member, was given the benefit of initiation. Birthday cake was served in honor of those members who have had birthdays in the past three months.

BIRTHDAY DINNER HELD TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch were hosts for a dinner Tuesday evening at the Rendezvous Club near Hermiston, this being the occasion of his birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Murchison and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wells.
