Across The Counter By Frank & Van

No doubt you've heard the old saying "A man is known by the company he keeps." In like manner an insurance agency is often judged the same way. By the companies it keeps (or represents).

Over the years, the companies we've kept have been those which provide the best protection and service for our own customers. These companies have been carefully selected. We know they are financially sound and can sincerely recommend them.

Through longtime friendship with their representatives we are able to work with them without unnecessary delay and trouble. This helps YOU.

For instance, at time of loss we know from experience that these companies will act in good faith. Not only providing exact justice according to the policy, but fair dealing even beyond the contract.

Also, if you have an exceptionally complex insurance problem, these companies will furnish you trained experts to help solve it.

We are proud of our companies. They are all outstanding. Please DO judge us by the "companies we keep."
