Here is a grim story but nevertheless true. A substantial motorist in London Ontario was—in effect—forced to sell his $100,000.00 hotel for $3.25.

"How is that possible?" you ask.

According to the news story, he was responsible for a motor crash which seriously injured six persons. The limit of liability coverage under his automobile policy was $20,000. But judgment was obtained against him for a total of $595. That left him no choice but to sell his $100,000 hotel to pay off these debts.

The tragic part, however, is this. For just $3.25 EXTRA he could have had $100,000.00 limits in his policy instead of $20,000.

So the unfortunate result: He sold a $100,000.00 hotel for $3.25.

Check on your own car insurance. We'll gladly show you how LITTLE extra will cost for adequate protection.

Lexington P-TA Gives Athletic Banquet Tuesday

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington high school athletic banquet was held Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m. in the dining room of the I. O. O. F. Hall. The tables were decorated in the Chinese motif with the mens place cards to represent Chinese junks and the ladies flower vases. Fruit blossoms were used as center pieces. The programs were made to represent certificates of award and contained the program and the menu. Chinese lanterns made of iridescent art paper were hung above the tables and Xmas tree lights with them. The menu was as follows, tomato juice cocktail, Vegetable salad, Chow Mein, and sherbet and wafers. The program was as follows: Prayer, Rev. Wetzel; Welcome speech, E. E. Peck; Speech, Charles Tom; Awarding of awards, Carl Schwab after which Dalorene Baiser presented Mrs. Bob Hagerud a gift from the G. A. A. girls and Earl Miller presented Mr. Carl Schwab a gift from the boys athletic association. At this time they had the opening of fortunes, which were little Chinese biscuits with the fortunes on the inside, then were fortunate to hear a talk from Leslie Grant the County school superintendent followed by a Thank You from Asa Way.

After this the youngsters accompanied by as many parents as cared too, danced to the phonograph in the lower hall. This was a semi-formal banquet with the girls and many of the mothers dressed in formals. The girls wore narcissus corsages all made to match. Those attending were Pat McMillan and parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan; Asa Way and father Dan Way; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tom; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Nolan and daughters Phyllis and Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwab, Franklin Miles, Larry Groves accompanied by Mr.

SPLATTER—is what state policeman Bill Labhart got by with last Saturday in the pie-throwing booth at the JayCees carnival. Several JayCees took their turn behind the canvas as targets for pie-slugging customers, but none received the full benefit of the gooey pastry as most throwers showed poor aim. (GT Photo) and Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and sons Bob and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grant of Heppner, E. E. Peck, who was master of ceremonies, Eugene Sawyer and Earl Miller accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Denny McMillan and father J. F. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Art Hunt and daughter Shirley, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wardwell and son Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hagerud and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding, accompanied by a son Maxwell and daughter Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kendall and daughter Janet and Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Baleser and Darlene.

The banquet was put on by the P. T. A. with the following committees: decorating and preparing, Lola Breeding, Phyllis Kendall, Marie Steagall and Delpha Jones; serving, Mildred Davidson, Quanita Martin, Clarice McFadden and Jerry Doherty. The committees and parents all worked together as a cleanup committee. This banquet was the recognition of the school athletes of the year. At this time there was basketball letters and football letters presented. Their coach had fine things to say about each one, and how happy he would be to have them back next year, with the exception of Earl Miller who is graduating in May. Mrs. Hagerud in presenting the awards to her girls had fine remarks about each and gave a short report on the athletics of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones, and children and Earl Miller are spending a few days in La Grande consulting a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Marshall are enjoying a visit from Mr. Marshall's brother and family of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth were business visitors in Pendleton Monday.

Mr. Alex Hunt is home after major surgery in the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner.

Mrs. Gene Cutsforth and Mrs. Gene Majeske were hostesses to a crib and cradle shower honoring Mrs. Elmer Piper at the Cutsforth ranch Friday evening. Games were played and lovely refreshments were served after the honoree opened her many lovely gifts. The cake was a lovely creation of pink rosebuds and a stork adorning the center. Those attending were Mesdames A. F. Majeske, Don Campbell, Stanley Kemp, O. W. Cutsforth, Bob Kilkenny, of Lexington; Lavelle Dick and Wilma Unrien and Tony Hill, and Mrs. Dick Meador of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske were The Dalles visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wetzel and small son Jimmie were La Grande visitors this week, where Jimmie consulted a physician. Mrs. Gene Leonard kept the other Wetzel youngsters during the absence of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mess of Roseburg are visiting their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth.

Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and children have moved to the ranch where they will reside during the summer months.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael entertained the Amicitia Club at her home last Tuesday night. Pinocle was played and later refreshments were served.

The Busy Dozen sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Bob Kilkenny last Thursday with the following members present, Mrs. Irven Rauch, Mrs. Gene Cutsforth, Mrs. Tad Miller, Mrs. Stan Kemp, Mrs. Elmer Piper, Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and the hostess Mrs. Kilkenny.

Mrs. O. G. Breeding was a Spray visitor on Friday. She motored over with a sister Mrs. George Sturgeon. While there they attended the funeral of 3½ months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Asher, and also a stork shower for Mrs. Don McQuinn.

Fair-Minded

(Each week the Gazette Times will run a suggestion by the Morrow county Fair Board on possible exhibits for this fall's fair. It's just a reminder of ways you can help make a bigger and better fair).

Busy fingers, busy minds, blue ribbons, active 4-H'ers and FFA members give meaning and purpose to all those working with them. To see them complete their projects and show the fruits of their labor is the purpose of a fair.
