Many Here For OES Friendship Night Friday

Friday evening, April 25th, Ruth Chapter No. 32, O. E. S., observed "Friendship" night. An interesting program was presented in addition to the regular order of business. "The House by the Side of the Road", the beautiful poem by Foss set to music by Kenneth S. Clark, was sung by Oliver Creswick, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Ruggles at the piano.

A pleasing agenda in which the May pole was wound by the Associate Matron and Star Points was enjoyed after which the Conductress presented the guests with miniature May baskets.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Anna Graham, Virginia Rosewall, Gladys Connor and Winnifred Cox.

Visiting Worthy Matrons were: Thelma Harkenrider, Hermiston; Eva Baldwin, Umatilla; Nadie Worlien, Fossil; Ruth Neel, Condon and their delegations; Mabel Edmonds, Worthy Matron and
