The Blue Birds who "flew-up" were Karen Pate, Judy Cochell, Wilma Bothwell, Bonnie Hannan, Vickie Barger, Shirlee Nash, Sharon LaVelle, Cara Lee Corbin, Nancy Harshman and Carol Anderson. Accompanying the girls were their leaders, Mrs. Maxine Harshman and Mrs. Alena Anderson. Four girls, Connie Anderson, Jeanne Collins, Florence Morris and Rose Ann Ayers were unable to attend.

Budget Stretcher—New Ice Cream Balls

Sugar-crisped Ice Cream Balls—a glamorous dessert for a May Shower (for the June bride, of course), for that special Spring luncheon party, or as a quick-and-easy finishing touch to any festive meal.

Refreshing as Spring itself and just as appealing are these balls of ice cream, rolled in sugar-crisped wheat cereal and coconut—then topped with a rich, smooth chocolate sauce. Whether the ice cream is home-made or bought at the corner store, all you will need is one pint to serve five, since the toppings will make it go farther.

Another nice thing about this party dessert is that it requires so little advance preparation. You can toast the coconut and make the sauce the day before. The ice cream will keep in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator until you are ready for it. Then, when dessert time arrives, slip quietly into the kitchen, shape the ice cream into balls (a scoop or large spoon is helpful), and roll these balls in the coconut and cereal mixture. Sauce them with chocolate and present them with pride.

Sugar-crisped Ice Cream Balls
 1 cup candy-coated puffed wheat cereal
 1/2 cup coconut, toasted
 1 pint vanilla ice cream
 Chocolate sauce

Combine cereal and toasted coconut in small bowl. Shape ice cream into balls and roll in cereal and coconut mixture. Place one ball in each serving dish. Serve at once with chocolate sauce. Makes 4 or 5 servings.
