Walla Walla Is Scene of Heliker-Cutsforth Wedding

By Delpha Jones

The White Temple Baptist Church in Walla Walla was the scene Saturday of a lovely wedding, when Mrs. Gladys Cutsforth became the bride of Donald Heliker of Ione. The bride looked lovely in a blue faille suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and rose buds. Her only attendant Mrs. Frank Johnson of Seattle wore a white suit with blue accessories. There was a double ring ceremony with the groom being attended by Frank Johnson of Seattle. A reception was held at the home of the bride.

After the cutting of the traditional first piece of wedding cake, the cake was cut by a sister of the bride, Mrs. Leonard Munkers of Lexington. The cake was a beautifully decorated two tiered creation with a bride and groom on top. Pouring was Mrs. Ronald Olsen, daughter of the bride of Walla Walla. The bride and groom left immediately for a trip. Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Killbenny, and Orville Cutsforth Jr. (Fritz) of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. John Graves, a brother of the bride of Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pettys and daughter, Sharon Cutsforth, Isabella Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Olsen of Walla Walla; and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker of Ione. The bride is well known in Lexington, having lived here several years prior to moving to Walla Walla.

Mrs. William Jones is visiting this week at the George Irven home in Ogdance.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hays and family motored to Lexington last weekend from their home in Corvallis. Mr. Hays returned there to his work but Mrs. Hays and children stayed for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner.

Earl Miller and Max Breeding were La Grande visitors at the W. I. Miller home over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth are vacationing in Cuba.

Ronald Fahle is spending some time at the Ray Papineau home. Mr. and Mrs. Papineau motored to Portland after him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steagall were visitors at Milton-Freewater, Sunday.

Election was held at the Holly Rebekah Lodge with the following being elected: Mrs. Lester Cox, Noble Grand, Mrs. Alvin Wagonblast, Vice Grand.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagonblast were The Dalles visitors over the weekend.

Dinner guests Sunday at the Wilbur Steagall home were: Mrs. Cora Argobright, Spray and small granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Strudgeon and son of Pendleton, Miss Irene Steagall of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell of Ione, and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding of Lexington and the Wilbur Steagall family.

Philip Leonard of La Grande has joined his wife and family, who is employed at the Lexington air-port for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth have returned from a vacation spent in San Francisco, California. Their young daughter visited at the home of her grandmother Mrs. Alta Cutsforth in Heppner while they were away.

Guests at the K. K. Marshall home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Marshall of Bend, father of Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Duncan, Buena, Washington.

Cpl. Charley Padberg and Pvt. Harold Goar of Eugene spent the weekend with Charley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orris Padberg. The boys have been stationed at Fort Lewis but were driving back to Fort Jackson, South Carolina, where they will be assigned.

Mrs. Ray Johnson returned to her home Sunday after a week at the home of her sister in Spokane. Mrs. Johnson was called there by the illness of the sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Sunday night at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Payne spent Saturday in Pendleton with his Mother Mrs. George N. Perry and Mr. Perry.

DRINKS AND SNACKS FOR THE FOURTH

A HAPPY, care-free Fourth of July weekend can be yours. Of course you will have food on hand to feed your family regular meals, but see to it that there is an abundance of food and cold drink ingredients to take care of the off-schedule meals and snacks that will be required when the younger set pops in with the gang after their various activities. Let them help themselves, and take it easy!

Cold cuts, tinned meat spreads and a variety of cheeses for sandwiches are essential, and cookies and cakes, of course. In the cool drink department, pale dry ginger ale and bottled fruit-flavored carbonated drinks should be chilled, ready to use. Ice cream should be on hand to make delicious ice cream sodas. A glass of ginger ale with a generous scoop of ice cream added is a simple and popular soda. A strawberry soda can be made by placing two tablespoons crushed, sweetened berries in a tall glass and adding ice cream and ginger ale.

Here's a refresher everyone will like on a hot day.

California Cooler

1 pt. lemon ice 4 teaspoons lemon juice
1 28-oz. bottle pale dry ginger ale

Divide lemon ice and lemon juice among 4 tall glasses. Add ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix. Fresh mint and a lemon slice make a pretty garnish.

Reception Honors 80th Birthday

Wednesday afternoon June 18, open house was held at the church parlors of the Methodist church honoring Mrs. S. H. Shannon on her 80th birthday.

The tea table, set with a lace tablecloth, was centered with roses and a birthday cake. During the tea, music was played by Mrs. Lucille Owens and Mrs. Ray Taylor. A duet was sung by the Rev. and Mrs. Nels Fast, and Miss Donna Hudson, granddaughter of Mrs. Shannon, sang a solo accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Eva Hudson at the piano.

Mrs. Gus Nikander gave a talk on her preaching and church work in Scottsburg. Mrs. Shannon gave a resume of her life and her coming from Missouri to Heppner with her late husband, Sam Shannon.

Soroptimists Plan Installation Party

Miss Catherine Barsch, Salem, assistant attorney general of the State of Oregon, will be installing officer at the Soroptimist Club installation June 28, according to plans made at the club's Luncheon Thursday at O'Donnell's.

The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. W. O. George in N. Heppner with a buffet supper preceding the ceremonies. It is open to Soroptimists or a guest.

During the year each member must raise five dollars for the club's scholarship award by some means other than her regular employment. The contest will conclude at the June 28th meeting and that member having the most unusual money-raising method will be awarded the prize. Mrs. C. C. Carmichael was program chairman for Thursday's meeting.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper announce the marriage of their daughter, Naomi Marcella Holliday to Earl R. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Hall of Oakland. The wedding took place April 26, in Washington.

Hall is in the navy at the time of their marriage and was stationed at Astoria. He has recently been transferred to the Portland Base where they are making their home.

Across The Counter

By Frank & Van

Sam liked to feel he had received full value (and maybe a little more) for every dollar he spent. And he thought he was making his dollars work overtime by taking out a small fire insurance policy on his house and furniture.

But when he came in one day, I asked him, "Sam, how much is 'peace of mind' worth to you?"

"What do you mean?" he inquired.

"How much would you give to be able to quit worrying about the possibility of having a large fire? To forget the fear of having to pay out thousands of hard-earned dollars to replace your house and furniture? Wouldn't that be worth the price of a candy bar each day?"

"Sure, Sam said, "It would be worth more than that. I know I'm sticking my neck out by taking the chance of big loss, but could I get full coverage for that?"

"Yes," I answered, "for only a nickle a day you can know that you are really protected in the event of fire."

"Write it up that way then", Sam said with a relieved grin.

Let us review your fire insurance too. Probably for a very small amount you can get full protection—and peace of mind;
