Sumner-Hisler Wedding Held At St. Patrick's

At a beautiful three o'clock ceremony solemnized at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church Sunday afternoon, Miss Joan Marie Hisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hisler, became the bride of James Sumner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Sumner. The Rev. Francis McCormack read the double ring service. The bride given in marriage by her father wore a wedding gown made of Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice had pointed sleeves and a low neckline which was caught into a ruffle of illusion finished with pearls. The skirt was made of a full court train. Her finger ring was a chantilly lace veil was held by a Juliet cap made of satin lattice design and decorated with seed pearls matching the outline of the gown. Her bouquet was a white orchid and lilies of the valley tied with a white ribbon.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas Bristow of Ione, sister of the bride, who wore a net ball gown made over taffeta with a strapless bodice and a net skirt. This was worn with a net sash and trimmed with daisies. Bridesmaids were Miss Leila Lachlan of Spokane, Mrs. Eugene Hall, and Mrs. James Lovin, sister of the bridegroom. All wore identical gowns and headbands similar to that of the matron of honor and all carried bouquets of Gerber daisies and lilies of the valley.

The flower girl was little Miss Anna Sumner of Arlington, niece of the groom, who wore a miniature gown of the bridesmaids. Her year old Paul Hisler Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer carrying the rings on a white ribbon pillow.

Jack Sumner, brother of the groom, was best man and usher. He wore a tuxedo and carried the bride's bouquet. Thomas Bristow and Eddie Gunderson. Miss Marguerite Glavey played wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Jr. who sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Your Feet I'm Kneeling."

Birth Party Held Sunday

The W. A. Ruggles home was the scene of a birthday party Sunday June 29 in honor of their son C. A. Ruggles and Vernon Padberg.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Collins and two girls, Mrs. John Lane and Bobby, Vernon Padberg, Chet Searcy, brother of Mrs. C. A. Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ruggles, and Connie and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ruggles.

The altar was decorated with gladioli, snapdragons and shasta daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hisler chose a navy sheer frock with white accessories and a corsage of lavender Japanese iris. Mrs. Sumner wore a navy silk suit with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in the Parish hall with the bridal party in the receiving line. Here the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake topped with daisies and sitting in a circle of matching flowers. Mrs. Ambrose Chapin and Mrs. John Barrie of Spokane, aunts of the bride, served the cake.

Mrs. Charles O'Donnell, aunt of the groom, poured; Mrs. James J. Farley presided at the punch table and Mrs. Tom Sumner of Arlington and Miss Ruby Ann Rietmann of Ione were in charge of the table of ices. The parish hall was decorated with garden flowers. Miss Katherine Monahan was in charge of the reception.

The young couple left for a motor trip which will take them to Banff and Lake Louise in Canada. For travel the bride wore a suit of wheat colored linen, teal blue accessories, a white orchid corsage and linen hat to match her suit.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner High School and Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande and for the past year has been teaching in the Hood River school system. The groom is a Heppner High School graduate and is employed at the Morrow County Grain Growers.

Many out of town guests attended the wedding, coming from Hermiston, Condon, Prineville, The Dalles, Pendleton, Moro, Arlington, Spokane, Hood River and Portland.

THE TRAIL TROTTERS

The Trail Trotters met at Grace McCabe's place June 24, 1952. Janet and John Howton were absent. We had a short business meeting and worked on our record books. We set dates for meetings in July.

Mrs. Robinson joined us after the business meeting and told us Grace McCabe was winner for the contest. The prize was a half-Arabian colt. It is a month old colt. When Mrs. Robinson told us she had brought the colt and its mother we all rushed out to see it. Then it was taken to the barn and turned loose. Grace has to train it to lead and have it ready for the fair next fall.

Reporter, Grace McCabe.
