Fair-Minded

(Each week the Gazette Times will run a suggestion by the Morrow county Fair Board on possible exhibits for this fall's fair. It's just a reminder of ways you can help make a bigger and better fair.)

Have you picked out your exhibits of wheat yet? Bales of hay and straw fit very well in the trunk of your car. Wouldn't take but a minute to bring them in. How about grass? The Cows like it. People like it too—in a neat exhibit.

SOROPTIMISTS MEET

The Soroptimist club held their regular meeting Thursday July 10 at noon in O'Donnell's.

Mrs. M. R. Wightman told of her recent trip to Seattle. While there she visited a Soroptimist meeting. She told of the interesting speaker she heard.

Mrs. Laverne Van Marter, Jr. was a guest at this meeting.

As your insurance agent, we call your attention to the fact that values are again going up and so are insurable values on your home, your household furnishings and all other property that you own.

The cost of materials, goods and labor has increased as much as 40% since 1947 and should you have a loss your present insurance might not be sufficient to meet present day values.

Recent fire losses reveal that many property owners are greatly underinsured. In many cases the fires have cost property owners Thousands of Dollars because they neglected to increase their insurance coverage.

For your protection, we suggest that you consult us at once about having your policies increased to meet today's values.

Do it today—tomorrow may be too late.
