Just a Reminder

... That if you will send your Rodeo and Back-to-school clothes to us now, rather than wait until the last minute it will enable us to do a better job of cleaning them, and you are assured of having them back ready for wear when you need them.

Right now is our slack season and we are able to give you better service, often just before Rodeo it is impossible for us to handle the load and still return your garments on short notice. Just give us a call. . . . we'll be glad to pickup your cleaning.
