Toss-Your-Own Citrus Salads

This time of year, salads taste better than anything else, and "toss-your-own" combinations suit a variety of tastes. As the base of the salads, serve a large bowl of the flavorful canned Florida orange and grapefruit sections mixed with greens—lettuce, chicory, endive, spinach—and French dressing; then pass smaller bowls of slivered tongue, canned shrimp, or shredded cheese, so that everyone can indulge his own taste. Citrus is a good foil for fish, cold meat or chicken, cheese, and other fruits, since it's tart and cool. Citrus salads make a good main course for summer luncheon or dinner, and furnish lots of vitamin C to keep you toned up and refreshed.

Male Crocheters Welcomed at Fair

The catch phrase "It's a man's world" is becoming another of those vanishing Americanisms. Women have infiltrated many fields of masculine endeavor to carry away banners bearing the familiar "veni, vidi, vici". However, there have been turn-about tactics on the part of many men in this country who have become expert in a traditionally feminine field. You've heard it referred to as the gentle art—the fine art—the delicate art, but our menfolk are in favor of the "masculine" art of crochet.

It's been said that men in the past surreptitiously plied their crochet hooks but recently they have emerged into the public spotlight. Last year hundreds of men proudly entered their crochet work in the needlework competitions at their local fairs—this being a preliminary step for the Nationwide Crochet contest. Over a hundred of them won blue ribbons and several of them, much to the chagrin of the ladies, even walked off with the best of fair trophies at their fairs. This year, once again, men will have the opportunity to show off their crochet ability in the 11th annual Nationwide Crochet contest. There's a special classification in the contest for men only and first national prize in this category is $100 and an all-expense trip to Chicago.

So, men, why not capitalize on your talent? The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo has a special classification for you. You're free to exhibit any type of article just as long as it is made of mercerized crochet cotton and has been completed in 1952. If your entry is awarded a special Nationwide Crochet contest blue ribbon at the fair, it will then become eligible for the national judging in the contest. This judging will take place next November.
