Hermiston Church Setting For Loy, Ball Wedding

By Echo Palmateer
 Miss Betty Jean Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ball of Ione and Steven Loy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Loy of Enterprise were married at the First Methodist Church at Hermiston Friday afternoon August 15 with Rev. A. E. Davis officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace ballerina dress over white taffeta, a finger tip veil held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and carried an orchid on a white Bible. She wore a single strand of pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom. Mrs. John Stowaser was matron of honor and wore a dotted pink ballerina length dress over pink satin. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gus Hartzheim who wore white swiss over aqua satin, and Miss Phyllis Plourd who wore white swiss over yellow satin. They all carried nosegays of carnations matching their dresses. Robert Loy, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Russell Dorran and John Stowaser. Robert Loy sang I Love Thee, and The Lord's Prayer and Mrs. Earl Watson was the organist. The church was decorated with gladioli. The mother of the bride wore a green dress with brown accessories and the mother of the groom wore a pink suit with white accessories and each wore an orchid.

A reception followed the wedding at the Civic Recreation center. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake the rest was served by Mrs. Harry Peterson, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Elsie Peterson, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Donald Ball and Mrs. Cecil Greece had charge of the guest book and the gifts. The bride chose a lavender suit for going away, with white accessories and her orchid.

After a short trip to Timber Line Lodge they will be at home at 605 Park, Hermiston. Mrs. Loy is a graduate of the Ione school and is employed in the office of the McNary Dam Construction Co. Mr. Loy is a graduate of the Enterprise schools and O. S. C., has served in the U. S. Navy and is employed as district manager of the East Oregonian in Hermiston.
