Special Awards Open To Top Crocheters At Morrow Fair

Will you be the nation's top crocheter in '52? Will that crocheted piece you are now working on bring you needlework fame and fortune? You'll never know unless you enter the largest needlework contest of the year—the Nationwide Crochet contest. $2500 in cash prizes plus the additional design award of $500 and two exciting all-expense trips to Chicago await the crocheters whose pieces are awarded national honors. The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo is giving you the opportunity to start the wheel of chance turning in your direction by entering your crocheted piece in its needlework department. If your entry wins a special blue ribbon at the fair it may very well go on to win top place in the national finals which will take place later in the year.

Your entry must be made of mercerized crochet cotton and must have been completed since the first of the year. Then you can enter it at the Fair to compete in the Nationwide Crochet contest. There are sixteen classifications in the contest and at the Fair a special Nationwide Crochet contest blue ribbon will be awarded to the best piece in each classification. In addition, a best of fair trophy will be given to the crocheter whose piece is judged best of all entries. If your entry receives one of these special awards it then automatically becomes eligible for the national judging which will take place next November.

However, before that time your name, address and the classification in which you won will be sent on to New York by the fair secretary. On or about the first of October, you will receive in the mail a complete set of official entry material for the national judging. After you have securely sewn the identification label to your entry and filled out the insureance form specifying the amount you want your entry insured for, you will then securely package your piece and using the address label supplied for your convenience will send it to the contest headquarters in New York.

The national judging will be done by a group of needlework experts including several needlework editors from the leading women's magazines. After the judging all entries will then be exhibited to the public for several days in Chicago. If you are the fortunate grand National champion or male champion you will be notified an arrangements will be made for you to come to Chicago where you will receive your awards. If you are awarded national prizes in any of the classifications you will receive your check and certificate in the mail. And after the exhibition your entry will be returned to you, fully insured from the moment it was received at contest headquarters until it reaches your hands in return.

For further information on the contest, contact the Fair Secretary N. C. Anderson, Heppner, Oregon.

Miss Marjorie Sims who has been visiting during the past week here with Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo and Miss Lulu Hager, left Monday for La Grande to visit her sister, Mrs. Dave Baum and twins. Miss Sims will teach in Hillsboro again this year.

You'll save time if you make a personal number list for the whole family

When you've a hurry-up call to make... or just for day-to-day convenience in making telephone calls... you'll find a list of the numbers you call most often can be a helpful aid to faster service. And because memory often plays tricks, you'll find your personal number list will help you to avoid calling wrong numbers, and save you time when you can't quite recall the number of a friend. If you'd like to keep your number list in a handy, personal directory, just call, send a postcard, or drop in to your nearest Pacific Telephone business office. We'll be glad to give you a free special number booklet.

faster long distance service
can be yours, if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling rather than just the name and address. That way, you won't have to wait while she gets the number from "Information" in the distant town. So, add out-of-town numbers to your personal list, too.

TREES MEAN RECREATION

You can use a forest and enjoy it too. Yes, forests are an all-purpose resource. They provide shade, beauty and relaxation for picnickers; shelter and food for birds and animals; watersheds for cities and farms; and wood for the manufacture of thousands of products needed in our daily lives. Enjoy the forests, use them, protect them from fire.
