Fair Plans in Final Phase, Many Entreis In

With only a few days to go final touches are being put to all facilities for making a big Morrow County Fair and Rodeo.

On the fair side entries continue to come in for most divisions. Most disappointing of entries being made in various classes is that of the grain, hay and grass divisions. L. A. McCabe, Ione, has the single wheat entry for the 1952 fair. This year's wheat production in Morrow county estimated to bring over 7 million dollars income. Hay and grass income is close to the million dollar mark.

Everett Harshman of the Hardman Hereford Ranch is the first Livestock exhibitor to make entry. Entries were made in eight classes. Among the entries is his herd sire, purchased last year from Painter Hereford Ranch. This is Harshman's first year to exhibit.

Most popular division is that of photography and miscellaneous art with 29 entries made to date. In the new class—County Booth—which consists of antiques and miscellaneous articles pertaining to Morrow County, general superintendent, Mrs. John Graves, reminds potential exhibitors that all articles will be in safe hands with an enclosed show case for the exhibit. Entries should be clearly marked with name, address and description.

Popularity of community booths is still evident. To date, six commercial booths have been reserved, with thirteen adult and juvenile organization booths spoken for. Three outside exhibits have been arranged for.

The program for the 4-H home economics division of the fair was completed this week by Mrs. Maud Casswell, demonstration agent, and she reminds 4-H members that all entries in this department must be in by 11 a. m., Wednesday, September 3. The program for this division is: Thursday 9 a. m., judging of the dresses in all divisions. 10 a. m., demonstrations. 11 a. m., special contest, bread making, wool growers contest and cake baking.

From 1 to 1:30 will be the judging contest where each member will judge classes set up in cookery, clothing, camp cookery and others. 2 p. m., home economics demonstrations. 8 p. m., style revue for all girls in Charmingly Yours, Clothing II, III, IV, and V. Awards for the Contests Judging, Demonstrations, Baking Contest, and Jelly Contest to be given at the Style Revue.

Dates of County PMA Elections Set

Community PMA elections will be held in each of Morrow county's nine farm communities from Aug. 28 to Sept. 12. Raymond Lundell, chairman of the county PMA committee announced today.

At these elections, farmers in each community will vote for three farmers to serve on the community committee, for a delegate to the county convention to elect the county PMA committee for 1953, and for alternates. Voting will be by mail. In general, any farmer is eligible to vote if he as owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper is participating or is carrying out practices in accordance with programs administered by the county PMA committee.

Chairman Lundell emphasizes that the effectiveness of Agricultural Conservation Program operations and of price support and marketing programs will depend a great deal on the community committees who are voted in at these elections.

The concentration of Agricultural Conservation Program operations in 1953 on the problems of individual farms adds to the need for able committees.

Committees will be expected to help each farmer in determining the conservation needs on his farm and in making the most effective use of ACP assistance and available services in carrying out most needed practices.

Since this program has to do with the protection and improvement of the soil and conservation of water on the farms of Morrow county, community committees are in a key position in the fight for continued production.

Additional Housing Needed During Fair

Frank Turner, chamber of commerce rodeo housing chairman this week asked for anyone having rooms they desire to rent during the fair and rodeo to get in touch with him at the Turner-Van Marter office on Main street.

Monday evening, September 1 with the big event of the evening to be the coronation of queen Kathryn Campbell by Judge Garnet Barratt and the presentation of her court immediately following the parade. The coronation will be held at the corner of Main and Willow streets.

Committee officials plan for an even better-than-ever parade this year promising two musical organizations for the kickoff event. The Heppner high school band will provide marching music for the evening and Buddy Lee and his Panhandle Playboys, Portland orchestra who play late in the evening for the Queen's dance at the fair pavilion will be present to add color. Queen Kathryn to Reign Over Fair Festivities

Reigning over the 1952 Morrow county Fair and Rodeo is comely Queen Kathryn Campbell, a vivacious Rodeo Princess in 1950 and a veteran ranch girl. She was a natural choice to rule over the Rodeo festivities.

Queen Kathryn is the pert black haired, blue eyed 20 year old daughter of Pat Campbell and the late Mrs. Kathryn O'Brien Campbell. Of Irish recent, her parents were both born and raised in Ireland. Coming to this country, father spent his "green-horn" days around Heppner. Later the Campbell family took up ranching in the Lonerock area and after many years of progress the Campbell and sons ranches now extend into Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler and Grant counties where they raise sheep and cattle. Five brothers and two sisters complete the Queen's family and her sister, Martha, Hermiston teacher, is the chaperone for this year's Rodeo court.

Queen Kathryn is a real ranch girl for she rides well and knows how to handle stock and is a ready and regular hand on her father's ranches.

A graduate of Heppner high school, she was a member of the class of 1950. She attended St. Mary's Academy at The Dalles, coming to Heppner in 1947 when the family moved to their Rhea Creek ranch. Kathryn, with her friendly personality, is a popular member of the local younger set. She is also a 4-H enthusiast having completed six years in various club projects. In high school she was active in G. A. A., Girls' League, F. H. A., was on the Hechich and annual staff and was princess of the 1949 football homecoming. She was selected by the Rhea Creek Grange in 1950 as Rodeo Princess to Queen Joan Hilsler.

For the past two years she has been attending Marylhurst college in Portland where she has been majoring in social science and minoring in psychology. She is quite active in many campus organizations.

Queen Kathryn always finds time to spend a weekend in Eastern Oregon when it's time for cattle roundup, lambing or some other ranch event. Interested in livestock and especially horses, the Queen spends her summers riding for cattle and sheep in addition to cooking for ranch crews, helping with the haying or any other task that may arise.

All sports are her hobby, but she puts emphasis on riding. A real rodeo fan herself, the Queen will ride her sorrel mare, Ballinalee.

Comprising her Royal Court are Princesses Rieta Graves, Lexington; Wilma Dalzell, Ione; Grace Miller, Boardman and Shirley Myers, Lena. The princesses will appear smartly outfitted in a sage green and gray combination with the Queen wearing the traditional all-white outfit. With it she will be wearing a green tie, carrying out a typical Irish custom. Queen Kathryn will be honored at her Queen's Dance next Monday evening at the Heppner fair pavilion following her appearance in the annual Dress-up parade earlier in the evening.

Well over $500 in prize money and merchandise awaits winners in the various divisions of the annual Fair and Rodeo Parade scheduled for Saturday morning, September 6 according to members of the merchants committee of the Heppner-Morrow county chamber of commerce who have charge of the parade arrangements and judging.

Of particular note is grand sweepstakes prize of $100 which was doubled from last year's figures. Many of the prizes in most divisions have also been increased to give more incentive for additional entries in the big parade. Harvey Wilhite, chairman of the committee pointed out prize money for the affair comes from donations from business and professional men throughout the county. Their increased donations this year making possible the larger prize list. Also to be repeated this year is the practice of giving $1.00 to each child under 12 years of age who participates in the parade. This money is put up by the fair board.
