Joan Reininger Weds Herbert Miller In Saturday Ceremony

At a beautiful 8:00 o'clock ceremony Saturday evening at the First Christian Church in Heppner, Miss Joan Reininger of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrel L. Benge of Heppner, became the bride of Herbert D. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Miller of Portland. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Earl L. Soward, pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Benge, was radiantly lovely in a white satin gown made with Chantilly lace strapless bodice which came onto the skirt in star points. This was worn with matching lace bolero. Tulle covered the white satin skirt and was made in bouffant style. Matching white lace mits were worn. The bride's only jewel was a strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

Her double finger tip veil, part of which made a face veil, was held with a Dutch cap made of Chantilly lace, edged with orange blossoms.

She carried a white Lutheran Prayer book which had belonged to an elder sister, Mary Ann, now deceased. A white orchid with stephanotis covered the Prayer Book.

The matron of honor, Miss Mickle Miller of Portland, sister of the groom, carried a shower bouquet of lavender and yellow chrysanthemums. The four bridesmaids, Miss Ingrid Hermann of Ione, Miss Lynn Marie Benge of Condon, Mrs. James Pettyjohn, and Miss Mary Miller of Portland, sister of the groom, all wore lavender gowns and carried shower bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The candle lighters were Miss Vienna Miller of Portland, sister of the groom and Miss Wilma Dalzell of Ione. Little Miss Hilda Bengtson, in yellow and carrying a nosegay, was flowergirl.

Gary Jones of Portland, cousin of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Michael Reininger, brother of the bride, Ralph Lee Benge of Condon, Freddie Campbell and Vern Carlson of Portland.

Mrs. J. O. Turner played the wedding music and accompanied Oliver Creswick who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Benge wore a green suit with black accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. William Smith of Riedville, wore an aqua brocade frock and a yellow glamilia corsage.

Doctor Surprised By Shower At Hospital

A surprise stork shower was given for Dr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Wagner at Pioneer Memorial Hospital Monday. This was arranged as a "mock" surgery. Dr. Wagner was given an emergency call to come immediately to the hospital. After a mad dash up the hill in his car, he found Drs. A. D. McMurdo and L. D. Tibbles scrubbed and apparently ready for surgery and Dr. Wallace J. Wolff standing by with the anesthetic. Last, but not least, there was a patient under a sterile sheet. Upon drawing back the sheet, Dr. Wagner found, much to his amazement, Mrs. Carroll Freeman covered with baby gifts. All these secret arrangements had been told to Mrs. Wagner so that she could be on hand for the party. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blakney, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gronemyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hebard, Mrs. Floyd Sayers, Mrs. Steve Trukositz, Miss Afton Eberhardt, Billy Wagner and Mrs. Bessie Livingston. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.
