

Lex Has Joint Rebekah Meet

By Delpha Jones
Thursday night October 16 was the date chosen by the State President of the Rebekah Lodges for the joint meeting held in Lexington with the Bunch Grass Lodge of Ione as guests. The meeting was called to order in the usual order by the Noble Grand of the Holly Lodge, Maxine

Cox in the chair. After the usual opening procedures and business of the evening the meeting was turned over to Bunch Grass who also held their regular meeting, as this date was also the date of their regular meeting. Vice Grand Vida Heliker filled the chair in the absence of their Noble Grand Lorrain Bail who was ill. Lexington Holly Lodge put on the draping of the charter for our departed members at this time. Those taking part in this were Delpha Jones, Mildred Davidson, Dimple Munkers, Marie Martin, Jo Irvin, Thelma Smethurst, Audrey Ansted and Florence McMillan with pianist Mrs. Edith Miller. Also at the meeting the State President Mrs. Olive Ramey gave a most interesting and instructive talk concerning our lodges and also told us that there are to be one year terms now instead of 6 months as has been the habit in the past.

The Ione ladies then gave a most clever skit called at the "Rummage Sale". This was very cleverly done and at the finish presented the President with a gift from the Bunch Grass and Holly Lodges. The following ladies taking part: Mrs. Elaine Reitmann, Mrs. Marravenne White and Mrs. Ring, pianist Mrs. Drake.

Immediately following this the lodge was closed in regular form. Lovely refreshments were served in the kitchen and dining room consisting of jello and cake and coffee. The tables were very beautifully decorated for this by members of the lodge. Also present were several Heppner ladies.

Joe Way who is stationed in Alaska with the Navy, returned home Sunday because of the illness of his mother Mrs. Dan Way.

The Lexington P-TA held their regular meeting at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium last Tuesday evening with a fine crowd in attendance. Preceding the meeting there was an interesting program which consisted of piano and accordion solos, by Betty Messenger, two vocal solos by Mrs. Hatfield and a piano solo by Mrs. Bates. Following this, the meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Robert Davidson. After an interesting meeting at which time the names of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg were added to the names of the finance committee, the meeting adjourned. Later refreshments were served in the lunch room from beautifully decorated tables carrying out the hallow'en theme. Those serving on the committee were Mrs. Art Hunt and Mrs. T. E. Messenger.

Mrs. Howard Adams and son Howard were in Heppner Thursday where Howard consulted a physician concerning an injury to his lip while playing football.

Mrs. Dean Hunt and Mrs. Jim Bloodworth were among the La Grande visitors one day last week.

Mrs. A. F. Majeska had as her guest last week Mrs. Olive Ramey State President of the Rebekah Assembly. She also visited there one day preceding this visit. Dinner guests at the Majeska home at this time was Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan. Following the meeting in Heppner, Mrs. Majeska and her daughter Mrs. Ansted were hostesses to a waffle feed at their home. Those attending were: Annie Keene, Frye Munkers, Thelma Smethurst, Mildred Davidson, Delpha Jones, Jo Irvin and Florence McMillan.

Earl Miller who is attending school in Monmouth spent the weekend with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, and while here enjoyed a little hunting.

Jo Irvin and Audrey Ansted were Hermiston visitors last Thursday.

Max Breeding who has been on a trip to Kansas with Mr. and Mrs. Don Grant has returned to his home, and the small children of Mr. and Mrs. Grant who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding have returned to their home in Yamhill.

Mrs. John Edwards who has been staying at the home of her sister Mrs. Bill Van Winkle Jr. and helping with the new arrival at that place, has returned to her home Ephrata, Washington.

Charles Padberg who has seen active duty in Korea and has just received his honorable discharge is at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg in Lexington.

How to make good telephone service even better...

A personal number list helps to speed your long distance calls. . . . Whether it's a birthday call to the folks back home, or an important business call across the nation, you'll save time if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling, rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait while she gets the number from "Information" in the distant town. And a free personal number booklet . . . for the local and out-of-town numbers you call most often . . . is yours for the asking. Just call, send a postcard, or drop in to your nearest Pacific Telephone business office . . . and start your personal number list today.

Have you taken advantage of the lower rates on "station" calls when you call long distance? If you tell the operator you'll speak with anyone who answers at the out-of-town number you're calling, you'll find it can mean important savings for you.
