Anger-Robertson's Read Here

An 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday evening, October 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Springer on N. Court Street, Miss Ida Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Muri O'Kiefe of Hood River, became the bride of Lester Anger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Palmer Sorlien, pastor of the Methodist Church, read the wedding ceremony in candle-light before the fireplace. The bride wore a white street frock with a corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Springer were the attendants. Mrs. Springer, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue suit with accessories and a corsage of gladioli. Reception followed the ceremony with the bride and groom cutting the first piece of the traditional wedding cake; after which Mrs. Lincoln Nash, aunt of the groom continued with the serving of the cake. Mrs. Arnold Springer, sister-in-law of the groom, poured and Miss Maryann Jensen was in charge of the guest book.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of roses, asters and dahlias. After a brief honeymoon trip, the young couple will be at home in the Thompson Apartments in Heppner.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson and children of Hood River. Other guests attending included Mr. and Mrs. Cloise Applegate and son, Steve; Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash and children, Lyle and Maryann; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Springer, and Mrs. J. Palmer Sorlien.

Homecoming Day Draws Many To Christian Church

Homecoming was observed at the First Christian Church Sunday with an all-day meeting. A potluck dinner was served at 1:30 p. m. in the church parlors to an estimated one hundred members and guests. A program was presented following the dinner which included an address on "Christian Friendship" by the Rev. Gene Robinson, pastor of the First Christian Church of La Grande; a history of the local church by Mrs. Frank S. Parker; a piano solo by Miss Patricia Peck; letters from distant members read by Mrs. Joseph Hughes, clerk; and introduction of visitors by Mrs. Ealor Huston.

Those coming from a distance to be present for the day's festivities were: Dr. J. Perry Condon, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniel, Hardman; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farquer, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mason, Mrs. J. E. Budd, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Newton, Coos Bay; Fred L. Huntton, Pasadena, California; Mrs. Mildred Badger, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. Trina Parker, Miss Dona Barnett, Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Wetzell, Lexington; Mrs. Olive Engleman and Mrs. Thelma Forbes, Ione; Mrs. Herman Parker, Pasco. Mrs. Robinson and their three sons accompanied Rev. Robinson to Heppner.

METHODIST WOMEN'S MEETING CHANGED

Mrs. Whitmer Wright drove to Seattle Tuesday for an indefinite stay with a friend, Mrs. Ella Taylor, who is critically ill. She was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Owens who will visit relatives in Seattle. Due to Mrs. Wright's absence the meeting of the Methodist women scheduled for October 27th at the Wright home has been cancelled. Mrs. Wright suggests that those having collections for the church calendar may turn them in at the regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service on November 5th.

Soroptimists Plan Card Party To Finance Halloween Hayride

Committees were appointed at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club at O'Donnell's, for the card party given to finance the halloween hayride given for teenagers every year.

Tickets will be on sale from every member of the club and the date set for the party is Monday October 27. It is to be held in the Episcopal parish house.

The Heppner club has been invited to a party by The Dalles club on Thursday October 23. Several from here are planning on attending.

Mrs. M. R. Wightman introduced the speaker Mrs. W. A. Ruggles. She spoke on fire prevention and safety.

Guests were Mrs. Robert Grabbill and J. O. Turner, who spoke briefly on safety and bicycle rules for the city.

Bookworms Get Review By Local Author

The Bookworms Club met Tuesday October 14, at the home of Mrs. D. E. Mitchell, hostess. The book, "Tumbleweed Drifter" was reviewed by the author, Vivian White who is an instructor in the Heppner school. "Tumbleweed Drifter" is the story of the range wars in Idaho and the coming of the barbed wire fence and the end of open range grazing. Mrs. White was also a guest of the club. Members present included Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, Mrs. Lucy M. Peterson, Mrs. J. O. Turner, Miss Leta M. Humphreys, Miss Lulu M. Hager, Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mrs. Cornett Green, Mrs. Sara E. McNamer and Mrs. Ted Smith.

Jaycees-Jaycee-Ettes Have Blood Typed

The Jaycees and Jaycettes had their monthly potluck and business meeting Wednesday Oct. 15 at the Civic Center.

After the dinner the group went to Pioneer Memorial hospital where they all had their blood typed. Including those whose type is already on file this made 40 members from this organization to have blood typed. The American legion and auxiliary are going to be invited to enter this project.

Plans were discussed for the rummage sale to be held Friday and Saturday Nov. 7-8. Proceeds from this sale are used to help finance the kindergarten.

Mrs. Wallace Wolff and Mrs. Ed Dobbie were welcomed as new members of the Jaycettes, Mrs. Allan Kessinger and Mr. and Mrs. James Kamprud were guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Everett Keithley and Mrs. McDon Bonta.
