Bergstrom Receives Highest Rebekah Degree

Decorations of Chivalry were conferred upon Mrs. John Bergstrom Saturday evening by Roy V. Devine, Department Commander of the Patriarch's Militant of Oregon at special ceremonies in Pennington. This is considered a significant honor and is awarded for meritorious achievement in lodge and community service. Mrs. Bergstrom is the first member of the Soci Rebekeh Lodge to receive the award in many years. Six other Rebekeh members of Eastern Oregon were highly recognized at Saturday's meeting. Lodge dignitaries from the state attended this meeting and a program followed the presentation. Those attending included Mrs. Ted Bergstrom, John Bergstrom, Mrs. Devine, Miss Leta Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott, Merle Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. Payne.

40th Anniversary Celebrated in Lone By Ernest Heliker

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Saturday when around 20 friends surprised them that evening. Slides were shown and refreshments were served. A large cake with the numbers 40 on it was served. They received many lovely gifts and long distant telephone calls. The Helikers were married in Lexington Oct. 26, 1912 and lived there until 1915 when they moved to this community. They lived on the ranch until 1945 when they moved to Lone. They have two children, Mrs. Jerry (Harriet) Bolman of San Jose and Donald of Lone.

Delta Kappa Gamma Initiates Eight

The Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held its initiatory meeting at the Presbyterian Church, Pendleton October 25.

Mrs. Richard Neuberger, member of the Oregon State House of Representatives, gave an enlightening and entertaining address on State Educational Legislation and Legislators. "The Loyalty Oath Bill was vicious in singling out teachers to be targets of slander," said Mrs. Neuberger. She also discussed the milk production and the school district reorganization bills.

Those initiated were: Mrs. M. J. Betson, Mrs. Archie Bond, Mrs. Don Braden, Mrs. H. M. Hanavan, Mrs. Earl Cochran, of Pendleton; Mrs. Homer Hayes, Irrigon; Mrs. Jay Vanderhorst, Unmattila; Mrs. Gerald Whitney, Athena.

Miss Edna Bloom, Alpha Chapter of Klamath Falls, now teaching at Lexington, was a guest.

Those attending from this area were Miss Galena Sandwick, Boardman; Mrs. John Partlow, Lone; Mrs. Franklin Ely; Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Mrs. Ethel Lyngholm and Mrs. Adrian Bechdolt, Heppner.

Birthdays Honored At Episcopal Auxiliary

At All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary meeting Thursday afternoon October 23, Mrs. Ture Peterson chose Dorothy Thompson's article "There is a Time" for discussion during the program period.

At the social meeting there was a surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. R. B. Rice and Mrs. W. O. Bayless. There was a birthday cake with one candle and a fruit cake as well. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. E. Hughes and Mrs. Ambrose Chapin.

The tea tables were centered with roses on a white damask cloth.

Plans were discussed for redecorating the parish house kitchen in colors.

Final plans were made for the dinner to be given the evening of Nov. 8. Mrs. Floyd Adams is to be contacted regarding this. The Rt. Rev. Lane W. Barton, is to be in Heppner November 9 for confirmation services.

Church Teachers And Officers Meet

The Teachers and Officers of the Christian church met at the parsonage on Tuesday evening. Plans were made for an attendance contest to run during the months of November, December and January. Committees for the Halloween party were appointed. Also the Christmas program.

There were 16 in attendance and Mrs. Marcel Jones served refreshments.
