Lovely Blue Birds Have All Day Meeting

The Blue Birds, who enjoyed an all-day meeting in the mountains last Saturday at the Paul Jones cabin were Karen Depuy, Barbara Dobbie, Mary Emma Evans, Sheryl Harris, Sandra Jones, Sharon Keithley, Doris Morris, Francine Moyer, Judy Parsons, Julie Pfeiffer, Mary Slocum, Janet Thompson, Bernice Thomson, Mary Evelyn Tucker, Shirley Van Winkle and Rogenia Wagner. Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Howard Evans and Mrs. Jim Thomson (mothers) accompanied them; also Ray Jones, Johnny Pfeiffer and Bruce Thomson.

The girls had fun playing games, in the tree house, on the teeter-totter, swinging and collecting small pine cones which they will use in making Thanks-giving turkeys. At noon they had their sack lunches and hot chocolate.

In the afternoon, after the Hansel and Gretel story had been told to them, they took a Hansel and Gretel hike through the woods with some of the mothers. They were delighted to find Hansel's crumbs (small stones) along the way in several places, the tree under which Hansel and Gretel slept, the owl's nest, a piece of Gretel's dress on the bushes, and what remained of the old Witch's house, even to the cage and where she had built the fire.

After returning to the cabin, they found treasures for all. A Halloween table had been arranged with lighted pumpkin candles in the center, and at each child's place there was a Halloween mask and whistle, candy corn, cookies and other candy.
