

Three Links Club Meets at Lexington

By Delpha Jones
The Three Links Club met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Jones on Thursday with an all day meeting and a pot-luck dinner at noon. The day was spent in finishing some of the fancy work for the bazaar and pressing the things finished. Those attending were Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Audrey Ansted, Cora Warner and Mrs. W. E. McMillan and the hostess Delpha Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth was hostess to a Halloween party at their ranch home Friday night. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilkenny, Mr. and Mrs. Irvan Rauch, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske, Don Hatfield, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth and their guest Marcella Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Piper.

Marcella Jackson is visiting friends and relatives in Lexington while employed by the State giving the hearing tests to the school children of this county. Marcella is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson former residents of this city and now of The Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and daughter Carol visited here during the weekend with Mrs. Laura Scott, mother of Mrs. Jackson.

Saturday Mrs. Francis McMillan was delightfully surprised when Mrs. Art Hunt entertained with a birthday party in her honor. Those attending were: Cora Warner, Gena Leonard, Bernice Lott, Lorrene Ledbetter and Lois Hunt. Ammabelle McMillan all of Lexington and a daughter of Mrs. McMillan's, Mrs. Freda Slocum of Heppner.

Clarence Buchanan accompanied by Miss Donna James of Hermiston visited at the Charlie Buchanan home on Sunday.

O. G. Breeding motored to Walla Walla Wednesday where he entered the hospital there for treatment.

One day last week the fire engine was called to help put out a fire at the Jack Griffin home. The report is that quite a little damage was done to the interior of the house, but the fire was soon put out.

The turkey dinner put on by the Lexington H. E. C. was quite a success with games and cards being played later. This was held in the Grange hall on Saturday night.

The Lexington Campfire Girls held their hallowe'en party at the Davidson home on Thursday evening. Games were played and a prize was given to the one in the cleverest costume, which went to Lucille Kendall and Charlene Jones who were dressed identical.

WIN OR LOSE?
We've viewed with alarm—
We've pointed with pride—
We're sure glad it's over
And no more to decide!
Whoever is chosen—
The voters have picked!
Howe'er you've bet—
This race wasn't fixed!
If, maybe, you lost
On that bet you made—
You'll just grin and bear it
When the wager is paid!
If with underinsurance
Your chances you take—
Could you keep that grin
If you lose the stake?
