American Legion and Auxiliary Observe Armistice Day

The American Legion and Auxiliary entertained with a dinner on the evening of Armistice Day with Bill Labhart, master of ceremonies and Judge J. Garnett Barratt guest speaker.

Russell Piersol of Hermiston, district commander, and Mrs. Piesol and Willard McMillan of Athena, district commander, and Mrs. McMillan were visitors. The Rev. Earl L. Soward gave the invocation.

The downstairs room was decorated as a night club and at 11:30 o'clock the floor show was presented. This was a local talent show with Leslie Grant as announcer and Lillie La Fleur (Harlan McCurdy, Jr.) the guest star giving an exotic bubble dance.

Then came the Three Jills and a Jack, Tes Hatfield Helen O'Donnell, Jackie Labhart and Marion Murchison; then Convention Capers with Bernice Healy, Shirley and Willard Blake and Curley Broadus taking part in this act. Following this Leslie Grant read "What to Look For in The Sweater", with Bob Ferrel dressed as the Sweater Girl.

Mrs. Kemp Dick is on the Americanism committee for this year in the American Legion Auxiliary which is instrumental in interesting the high school pupils to compose themes and the winner received a medal from the auxiliary.

A benefit card party is planned for Friday evening, November 21, at 8:00 o'clock in the hall on South Chase street. This is to procure gifts for Yanks and Mrs. Kemp Dick and Mrs. Willard Blake are in charge.

Mrs. Ellis Saling has been appointed publicity chairman.

Kincaid-Bell Vows Read At Hermiston

By Echo Palmateer

Miss Bonnie Bell of Hermiston, daughter of Mrs. Elma Furgeson of Denver, Colorado, and Roger Kincaid, son of Mrs. Ruby Nichols of Ione were married in the parsonage of the First Baptist church at Hermiston Sunday, November 9. Dr. James M. Bennett officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore an ice blue satin dress with lace over it and a finger tip veil held by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white bible.

Miss Margaret Gossler was the bridesmaid and wore a blue dress and carried a nosegay of white and pink chrysanthemums. Ralph Kincaid was best man for his brother.

The brides mother wore a white knit suit with blue accessories and an orchid. The groom's mother wore a blue dress and black accessories with a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed at the parsonage. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake the rest was served by the groom's mother, Mrs. Bob Bell, aunt of the bride, poured.

For going away the bride chose a red suit with white accessories and her orchid. After a honeymoon to Seaside and Seattle the couple are now living in a trailer house in Ione and Mr. Kincaid will work at his grandmother's, Mrs. Clara Kincaid, farm.

Relatives attending the wedding from a distance were Mrs. Elma Furgeson and son George of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Ruby Kincaid and sons Ralph and Lindsay, L. J. Padberg all of Ione, Lyle Kincaid of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Roudy and family of Kennewick, Washington.
