

Death Takes Two Residents Of Boardman

By Flossie Coats

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Eva Warner Monday morning November 17th at 11 a. m. in the Boardman Community church with Miss Jean Scott officiating. Pallbearers were Mr. Elmer Messenger, Zearl Gillespie, Arlin Hug, Adolf Skoubo, Nate Macomber and Chas. Dillon. Mrs. Nate Thorpe and Mrs. John Partlow sang two hymns "Abide With Me" and "Some Day We'll Understand" accompanied by Miss Mary Ethel Mengel. Burns Mortuary of Hermiston was in charge of the service.

Mrs. Eva Warner came to Boardman with her family in July 1916, joining her husband Mr. O. H. Warner who had come in March ahead of the family, and has resided in the community ever since and having operated the Boardman hotel for many years, always serving family style meals which were enjoyed by all who eat there. Mrs. Warner has been a member of the Boardman Community church for many years being among the ones who organized the church here.

Mrs. Warner spent several weeks in Downey, California, with her niece Mrs. James Dickman, returning to her home in October and had been confined to her bed since, passing away Friday, November 14.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Heck, Seattle, and Mrs. Viola Follette, Fairmont, Minn., who were both present at the funeral, seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, a niece Mrs. Dickman, Downey, Calif., who was also present and a nephew Edd Hunt, Bremerton, Wash. Mr. Warner and another daughter Mrs. Ada Goodwin preceeding her in death several years ago.

Bernard W. McLaughlin died Sunday November 16, 1952 in the Pioneer Memorial hospital, Heppner after nearly a years illness. He was taken ill December 1951 and in February he with Mrs. McLaughlin went to Rock Springs, Wyo, and also to Salt Lake City, Utah where he received medical treatments and many tests, and one operation. He with Mrs. McLaughlin returned home a month ago. For the past week his health was falling fast and on Sunday morning was rushed to the Pioneer Memorial hospital where he passed away about 1 p. m. Funeral services are to be Wednesday, November 19, 2 p. m. at the Boardman Community church.

Mrs. Earl Briggs left Sunday for Spokane, Wash., where she will be a house guest of her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell. Mr. Briggs will go for Mrs. Briggs over the Thanksgiving holidays.

GM Opens $194,000 Highway Contest

FROM DETROIT headquarters, thousands of entry blanks and rule books were being mailed out this week to contestants in the General Motors Better Highways Awards Contest. The contest is the largest of its kind ever attempted and GM is offering 162 prizes, totaling $194,000 for the best essays on the subject, "How to Plan and Pay for the Safe and Adequate Roads We Need."

Open to every man and woman in the United States, the contest offers a first national award of $25,000; second place nationally, $10,000; third place, $5,000; and three national honorable mentions of $3,000 each. In addition, there will be nine separate regional awards of $2,500 each. Finally, first place winners in each of the 48 states plus the District of Columbia will receive $1,500 each. Two honorable mention awards for each state and the District of Columbia will be $500 each, a total of 98 state honorable mentions.

GM is sponsoring the essay writing contest, which closes on March 1, 1953, in an effort to stimulate "more nation-wide thinking, discussion and understanding of the facts of our current highways requirements."

Entry blanks, rule books and further information about the contest may be obtained at any GM passenger car or truck dealer in the U. S. or by writing to General Motors Better Highways Awards Contest, General Motors Building, Detroit 2, Mich.

Former Heppner Man In Hereford Ass'n.

Kansas City, Mo.—Gordon A. McGough, formerly of Heppner, today was named to membership in the American Hereford Association, the world's largest purebred registry organization with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

One hundred thirty Hereford breeders were placed on the Association's official roster during Oct. to boost the total membership to an all-time high of 21,620. Members represent every state in the nation. In addition to the membership roster, the Association maintains active accounts for approximately 80,000 Hereford breeders.

The Hereford Association last year recorded a new world record of 548,418 purebred calves, an increase of 42,357 over the record established during the previous fiscal year. Hereford calves registered last year were two and a half times the total registrations of other major beef breeds combined.
