SAAGER'S PHARMACY owner Phil Blakney is showing Mrs. M. D. Grimes one of the many stuffed animals and toys that are always Christmas favorites. In the background are some of the big stock of unpainted ceramics that have been so popular this year as gifts. The store is headquarters for many well known cosmetic gift lines too.

WESTERN AUTO has the gifts to make every boy happy. Here Conley Lanham is showing Billy Monahan the workings of a swell Hiawatha bicycle. Billy knew it was just for a picture, but he was "sure hopin'." The bike is just one of the many gift items stocked in this store that is full of gift items of all kinds for boys and girls and Moms and Dads.

NEWS OF THE Heppner Schools

FIRST AND SECOND GRADE

Membership in the first and second grade room has come back to its original number of 25 since Carolyn Downing transferred from the Pilot Rock school Tuesday. She occupies the seat left vacant recently by Billy Todd.

John Cleveland has been out this week because of illness. His absence breaks the perfect attendance record transported children in the two second grade rooms had built up. They had gone five weeks without an absence.

Bobby Hager was out Tuesday and Steven Applegate Friday.

Tommy Gonty was gone the first of the week. He had accompanied his family on a trip into Washington.

Mrs. Chalmer Privett visited our room Wed. She arrived in time to attend the movie "Three Fox Fables" with the children.

The first and second graders made a turkey farm during art period Friday. They used the buildings and fences of their ranch set, but shaped the turkeys from plastic clay.

Some of the second grade girls worked on cut-outs of Pilgrims going to church.

SECOND GRADE

News reporters for this week are Annette Jones, Marce Fast, and Billy Wagner. We say the pledge to the flag every morning.

We had a field trip and drew pictures that showed things of autumn.

We learn to sing out of music books. We are singing Indian songs this week.

Cheryle Hartman was sick this week. David Grant had his birthday party at school.

We will open our store Monday. Ginger and Bill are the store keepers. Marce Fast reporter.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

We have made a tight rope of figure men on the black board. To walk the tight rope, we multiply the figure men by 2's, 3's and 4's.

We have also made a mural on which we have drawn many turkeys. Charles drew a wonderful pig and Wayne started us out by helping make the background and he also drew a very good tree. We also have some nice horses.

Wayne and Neal are making a mural by themselves. Wayne has made a wooden chain with six links out of a single piece of wood, which interested us children very much. Richard has new glasses that look very nice on him. Karen has had her eyes tested and is going to get glasses next week. We have started a very interesting reading book called "Singing Wheels" and are using the companion workbook for it. The American Hearing Society has given us some very nice posters saying that there are 15,000,000 people that have trouble hearing. They tell us how to care for our ears so that we are less likely to have hearing trouble. Sheryl Harris, reporter.

and we enjoyed ourselves at the luncheon. Janice Beamer, reporter.

LUNCHEON CLUB

The 4-H Luncheon club held a meeting November 18 in the school cafeteria.

We elected officers, they are JoAnn Keithley, president; Virginia Gonty, vice president; Virginia Andresen, secretary and reporter, Barbara Warren, song and reception leader.

We also talked about having a luncheon for our mothers. The next meeting will be November 22.
