SECTION TWO

GONTY'S "boss man" Ed Gonty is showing an interested customer the new Capehart 21-inch Television set he has just put on display. Though there are areas where TV is not yet receivable, the new Spokane station is expected to bring good TV reception to much of the area, and many residents of the higher elevations of the county are now receiving daily programs from Seattle. For homes where reception can be obtained, what finer Christmas gift could be chosen than this beautiful set?

AT PENNEY'S—Neva Matteson is showing a Christmas shopper, Doris Thompson of Spray, one of their many dolls. Pictured is just a corner of the store's big toyland. Christmas decorations are going up and manager Jeff Carter has had his salespeople unpacking gift merchandise of all kinds to aid Christmas shoppers in finding something for every name on their lists.

Ione P-TA Sees Student Council in Operation

By Echo Palmateer

The Student Body Council of the high school held a regular meeting during the P-TA meeting Wednesday evening of last week to show to the parents how their meetings are conducted and the business they do. Donald Bristow is the president and Janet How-ton the secretary. Other numbers on the program, conducted by Mrs. Alfred Nelson, were a skit, Thanksgiving Day by Mrs. Gordon White dressed as a turkey gobbler and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen as a White Leghorn rooster with Mrs. Harvey Ring as prompter. Mrs. Clyde Riley sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. L. L. Howton. During the business meeting Harlan McCurdy, president, chose the committees for the Christmas program to be held the evening of Dec. 23rd. The chairman are, soliciting, Merle Baker; decorations, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow; sacking, Mrs. Ida Coleman; and Santa's helpers, Harold Sherer. The Seniors and Sophomores won the prize for having the largest number of parents and teachers present Mrs. John Eubanks gave a report on the lunch room and Mrs. Gordon White read the budget. $86 is to be raised to carry on the work of the P-TA. Mrs. Fredrick Martin reported on the National Parent Teachers Magazine and gave paper orchid corsages to those taking the magazine. Lunch was served by Mrs. Art Dalzell. Mrs. Vern Dalzell, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Lawrence Jones and Mrs. Wm. Bergstrom. The tables were decorated in the Thanksgiving motif.

Mrs. Gordon White was elected chairman of the H. E. C. of Willows Grange at a meeting at their hall Friday of last week. Other officers elected were Mrs. Wate Crawford, vice president; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, secretary; and treasurer, Mrs. O. L. Lundell. A turkey dinner was served at noon by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs. John Eubanks. The members brought salads and desserts.
