MODE O'DAY is daily receiving shipments of gift lovelies for the ladies. Just one example is this smart rayon taffeta frock modeled here by Pat Gentry. Mode O'Day owner, Mrs. Archie Murchison, has a grand selection of dresses for all occasions as well as lots of lovely gift lingerie purchased specially for Christmas giving.

HEPPNER HARDWARE AND ELECTRIC is the place to order one of the most appreciated gifts any man can give his wife—a General Electric clothes dryer. Here is Mrs. Loyl Parker showing one of these household necessities. That Universal coffee-maker on top of the dryer makes a pretty swell gift too, especially if Pop has to make his own morning coffee!

Monument Club Plans Dance

By Millie Wilson
Olive Cox was hostess for the M. M. M. club at her home last Thursday. Those present beside the hostess were Helen Brown, Lydia Capon, Clara Strecker, Clarice Campbell, Fayr Sweek, Wave Jackson, Martha Matteson, Lois Hill and Millie Wilson. Final arrangements for the club's annual Thanksgiving dance were discussed. After the business meeting the hostess entertained with games. Clara Strecker, Fryr Sweek, Lydia Capon and Wave Jackson were prize winners. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held December 4 at the home of Wave Jackson. Lydia Capon will have the Christmas party this year. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sweek have their grandson, Mike Sweek of Heppner visiting this week. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Cork returned from Portland on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek took their daughter, Carol to John Day for a dental appointment on Tuesday. Stanley Cox took his father Percy Cox to the veteran's hospital in Walla Walla last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Trenton Morrow of Long Creek were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowman on Tuesday. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren of Spray were sorry to hear they had lost their home by fire on November 20th. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reade have their baby in Dorenbecker hospital in Portland. So far the cause of his illness has not been learned. Mrs. Lola Shank, who has been confined to her bed for the past month is now slowly regaining her health. Wave Jackson received word on Thursday that her daughter Thelma Mailey of Condon had been taken back to the hospital in The Dalles for further treatments. Mrs. Alta Wright of John Day is spending some time with her daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Round. Mrs. Ivy Barnard served dinner
