Koreans Need CARE Gifts To Survive Hunger, Cold

NEW YORK—The third winter of war means increased suffering for the South Korean people, Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE, reminded Americans in an appeal to continue their relief aid.

About 10,400,000 persons, half the total population, are in dire need of food, warm clothing and blankets, according to reports from Dr. Charles R. Joy, CARE mission chief in Korea. Mr. French said, "Relief packages provided through donations to CARE-for-KOREA, 20 Broad St., New York 5, N.Y., or any local office of the non-profit agency, are direct assurances of these lifesaving supplies, he pointed out.

"Cities like Pusan and Seoul are swollen with refugees, who live in flimsy straw huts," Mr. French stated. "Orphaned children, clad in rags, roam the streets begging for food. Throughout the fall, families in rural areas were eating weeds and grass—but frozen fields do not yield even that surcease from hunger.

"Starvation and cold must be fought as relentlessly as armed aggression, or the defense of freedom is meaningless. On behalf of Korea's suffering humanity, we must ask Americans to keep sending CARE."

CARE packages for Korea include: Food, underwear, knitting wool, cotton clothing fabrics, $10 each; blankets, $7 each; special food, $5. Distribution is made to

This veteran public telephone installation at the corner of Alcarado and Franklin in Monterey, California, has been busy serving the public since 1930.

MEET AN OLD FRIEND ON "MAIN STREET"

For more than 70 years, public telephones have been on the job in the West to bring you service when you need it.
One of the oldest landmarks along the "Main Streets" of the West is the familiar blue and white sign of the public telephone. And it isn't just happen that you're never very far from one of these signs when you want to make a call. We now have some 92,000 public telephones at work in the hundreds of communities where we operate locally here in the West—and they've been carefully placed to make sure a telephone is always readily available to you from your home or place of business.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains.
Making sure good telephone service is available when and where it is needed is just one more way we work to make your telephone ever more useful and valuable to you.

You've just arrived in town—and, of course, you depend on the telephone to help you contact relatives and friends. That's why we've put public telephones in all bus, rail and air terminals—as well as drug stores, filling stations, hotel and theater lobbies and a host of other handy places. From any of these telephones you can be linked—swiftly and efficiently—with any telephone, anywhere. And we're installing even more public telephones every day.
