NEWS OF THE Heppner Schools

Continued From Page Four being initiated you have to bow to the boys who have been lettermen before and say, "Dear Lettermen" three times and you have to stand there at attention until they say you may go. The boys who are getting initiated in the seventh grade are Lance Mickelsen, Kay Corbin and James Morris. Jim Morris.

Essays

After we finished studying China and Japan, we started on our essays. First we made an outline of the material we were going to use. After we had finished our first copy and had it corrected, we made our final copy. We have been writing them for about a week. Joann Brosnan

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade had their current event tests the other day. This test covers six weeks of work, and it is sent to us by the publishers of Current Events. Joann Brosnan got the highest score, which was 96%. The scores ranged from 96% to 30%. The students thought that it was rather a hard test. We are averaging the scores of the seventh and eighth grades, to see which grade will get the highest average score. Janice Beamer

The seventh grade is going caroling Monday night from 7 to 8. We are making several stops. We expect a good time.

Monument Groups Hold Yule Parties

By Millie Wilson
Christmas parties are being enjoyed by all the organizations in Monument. On Dec. 18th Lydia Capon assisted by Mrs. Beardsley entertained the M. M. M. Club.

Games were enjoyed with Lizzie Copper, Delsie Sweek and Rose Miller as the winners of prizes. The home was decorated for Christmas with a large Christmas tree, under which were the gifts for exchange. There were seventeen members and one guest of honor, Mrs. Georgia Capon, present. Mrs. Capon also drew the White Elephant prize. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting, Jan. 8, will be held at home of Rose Miller, at that time the secret pals will be revealed. It is hoped all members will be present.

The American Legion and the Auxiliary held their Christmas party on the eve of Dec. 18 in the grange hall. They were entertained by the school band. This was the first public appearance of the band. Cards were enjoyed after which they had an exchange of gifts. Potluck dessert was served.

The Monument Grange will hold its Christmas party Dec. 20 with an exchange of gifts and a potluck dessert supper.

The Monument Grade School will present their Christmas program Dec. 23, after which they will sponsor a public dance as a benefit for the school. Mr. and Mrs. Farrow will furnish the music.

Professor Robt. Croft and Mrs. Croft left Thursday for Portland where they both will receive medical aid. They left their three sons with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogach. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Copper and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hooker. The Crofts expect to be gone ten days.

Mrs. Anita Cork returned from San Francisco last Thursday. She was met at Dayville by her father, Emory Moore.

Mrs. Dean Enright of the L. S. Ranch on Cottonwood, was doing Christmas shopping in John Day Wednesday.

H. M. Hanson of Long Creek returned to Portland on Dec. 15 to have more medical aid for her leg which was broken during haying last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill drove to Fossil December 18 to attend to business matters an dto visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reade r Spray are the parents of a baby girl, born at the Prairie City hospital December 14. The parental grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reade of Spray. (Continued on page 6)

Furniture Fashions

Your cue to the perfect gift for Dad is cozy comfort, so why not surprise him with a new contour chair on Christmas morning, or give him a gift certificate so he can select his own. Scientifically designed to make him relax in spite of himself, it will be so nice for him to come home to. The high back rests the head comfortably and tilts all the way back when desired. A foot rest may be extended to support the entire body in a prone position. The model shown above is upholstered in 100 per cent nylon boucle, a hard-wearing fabric. This chair will also please Mother, since it may be cleaned with a damp cloth. This Christmas stores are featuring a wide selection of furniture gift items: TV chairs, snack tables, tea carts, wall racks, silent valets, and a host of things to make entertaining easier and home life more comfortable. Dual purpose furniture is continuing to gain in popularity, as designers place greater emphasis on a combination of fashion and function.
