1953 BUICK—NEW POWER, PERFORMANCE, STYLING

Buick introduces for 1953 a Golden Anniversary line of cars with outstanding engineering developments which include the world's newest V-8 engine and an advanced Dynaflo transmission. Pictured above is the two-door, six-passenger Riviera in the Super Series, most popular hard-top in the Buick line. Its new engine, leader of all V-8s, turns up 170 horsepower with a compression ratio of 8.5 to 1. The new Twin Turbine Dynaflo gives it vastly improved performance and greater economy with no sacrifice of Buick's completely smooth acceleration. It has a re-styled front end incorporating a sturdier grille, two-piece bumper, and a futuristic headlight arrangement. A new alligator-type hood, long-flowing body lines, new moldings and ventiports, and horizontal rear fenders with bullet-shaped tail lights, give the car an ultra-modern, sleek appearance. The interior features fresh new colors and tasteful trim. Its wheel-base is 121 1/2 inches and offered as optional equipment are wire wheel covers and power steering.

Portland Wedding Interests Many In Lexington

By Delpha Jones

During the Christmas season a most beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Mallory Christian church in Portland, when Roberta Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and Arthur G. Matthes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthes of Troutdale were united in marriage.

The bride was beautiful in the traditional wedding white and carried an all white French bouquet of white carnations, white stock and ribbon.

She was attended by her sister, Marjorie as maid of honor, she wore turquoise taffeta and carried yellow mums with white stock and matching ribbon. A friend was bridesmaid wearing aqua taffeta with bouquet the same as that of the maid of honor.

Harry and Kenneth Miller, brothers of the bride, were candle-lighters and another brother, Jack was best man.

The flower girl was the four year old niece of the groom.

Miss Jean Schriever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever, was organist and George Thompson, vocalist.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to western Washington.

Those from Lexington attending were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the service.

The Miller family is well known in Lexington, having lived here several years and the children attended school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt entertained with a party at their ranch home Saturday evening. Supper was served after which a most enjoyable evening was enjoyed by the following people, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rauch Sr. and son Fred Jr. of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch of Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. G. Herman of Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch of Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Matheny of Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Irven Rauch of Lexington.

The Holly Rebekah Lodge held installation of officers at the hall at the regular meeting on Thursday night. The following officers were installed at this time, Delpha Jones, Noble Grand; Audrey Ansted, Vice Grand; Jo Irvin, Warden; Veytha McCall, Conductor; Laverne Henderson, Chaplain; Thelma Smethurst, R. S. N. G.; Cattie Padberg, L. S. V. G.; Mrs. A. F. Majeske, L. S. N. G. At this time Mrs. Art Keene was installed as Sec. Also part of the business was the election of a member of the board of trustees, which was Mrs. Lavern Henderson. A Thank You was given Mrs. Lester Cox for her fine work as Noble Grand the past year and she was installed in the P. N. G. chair. After the usual business meeting the meeting was adjourned.

Pat Carty who lives at lower

Willow Creek was visiting in Lexington at the Charles Breshears home one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller and sons Earl, Wayne and Gary were New Years visitors at the C. C. Jones home, staying until Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson and family were visitors at the Lonnie Henderson ranch home where they enjoyed a fine dinner and watched the ball games on television.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Breshears enjoyed dinner guests for New Years. They were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell of Ione and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall.

Miss Sharon Cutsforth returned home Monday after a visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers. Sharon makes her home in Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. Red Leonard were Portland visitors last weekend. The L. D. Vinson family of Monument were visitors at the home of her mother and father Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Balsler and daughter were renewing acquaintances in Lexington over New Years. Their daughter Darolene visited at this time with Miss Betty Messenger.

David Buchanan was a visitor one day last week at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Continued on Page Seven)
