Neel-Leathers Vows Read Sunday In Monument Gym

By Millie Wilson

The gymnasium in Monument on January 25, was the scene of one of the largest weddings ever held in Monument, when Isobel Leathers, daughter of Roy Leathers and maternal grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Neal and parental granddaughter of Dillie Leathers, became the bride of Robert Neel.

Rev. Paul Kimmel officiated and Mrs. Janice Cork presided at the piano while Darlene Boyer and Anita Cork sang "Because" and "With This Ring Thee I Wed".

Jack Jewel and Jack Forrest acted as ushers.

The bride, lovely in white satin and lace wore a string of pearls, her shoulder length veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book and white rose buds. She was given in marriage by her father, Roy Leathers.

Her bridesmaids were Jessie Ray Jewell, dressed in a green formal and she carried yellow carnations; Darlene Capon, whose dress was blue and she carried orange carnations; Rhonnie Bleakman, in a yellow formal and carried pink carnations and Yvonne Stubbiefield dressed in green and she carried yellow carnations. Little Jerry Lynn Lesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lesley, was flower girl. She was dressed in blue and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations tied with pink ribbon. The brides maternal grandmother wore a corsage of red carnations while her paternal grandmother wore a corsage of white carnations. Her grandfather had the traditional white carnation in his button hole.

Mrs. Floyd Staff, Jr. was seated in place of the groom's mother who was unable to attend. She wore a corsage of white carnations. Floyd Staff, Jr., a boyhood friend of the groom, acted as best man. Other attendants of the groom were Lewis Neal, uncle of the bride, Jack Forrest and Jack Jewel.

After the ceremony the wedding party and all the guests attended a reception at the grange hall, where a lovely three tiered wedding cake, adorned with a miniature bride and groom was served with punch and coffee. The bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, the rest was served by Luella Neal, aunt of the bride and Francis Fleming. Linnie Gilman mixed the punch which Joan Roach, cousin of the bride and Rose Pierson served.

The young couple left, amid a shower of rice and with the best wishes of their friends, for Oklahoma City on their honeymoon. They will visit Mr. Neel's parents.

On their return they will be at home on the Neal ranch which they will operate this year.
