Rash-Zivney Wedding Read At Boardman

By Flossie Coats

In a double ring ceremony at the Boardman Community church Miss Delores Zivney, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zivney, became the bride of Darrel Rash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash at a 2:00 p. m. service, February 7th, 1952 with Dr. James Bennett, Baptist Minister, Hermiston reading the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father was beautiful in a floor length white satin gown, with all over lace, long sleeves, high neckline. Her veil was also floor length held in place by a cap with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid, the Bible being a gift from her grandmother Mrs. Lulu Stevens, Portland.

The Maid of honor was Miss Marlene Fisk, friend of the couple, who wore a deep rust taffeta, ballerina length and matching mits, carried a bouquet of yellow mums. Bridesmaids were Grace Miller and Nancy Rands who both wore biege taffeta, ballerina length and matching mits and each carrying yellow mums.

Best man was Sidney Ferguson, friend of the young couple. Ushers were Ted Zivney, brother of the bride and Bob Smith a friend and who also lives at the Rash home.

Both Mrs. Zivney and Mrs. Rash chose for their sons and daughter's wedding navy blue with white accessories with corsages of white gardenias.

The candlelight service was performed before an altar decorated with pink snapdragons, white stock and yellow acacia, decorating being done by an aunt of the bride Mrs. Harold Stevens, Vancouver, Wash.

Music was furnished by Bill Palmer who sang "Because" and Mrs. Dale Clarke, cousin of the bride, who sang the "Wedding Prayer" both accompanied by Mrs. Harold Baker (Mildred Miller) on the organ. Mrs. Baker also played the wedding marches.

Following the wedding the reception was held in the Grange hall. The tea table was beautifully decorated with a lace cloth and yellow daffodils. Miss Ora Ely and Wilma Hug pouring the coffee and punch. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake, Audrey Stevens, cousin of the bride and Carolyn Raily, a friend from Vancouver served the cake. Barbara Anderegg was in charge of the gift table, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Stevens, aunt of the bride, and Miss Doris Roeser had charge of the guest book.
