CHECKING?

Can't say we care for winter with the mercury way below! But we like to see the mountains!

With a good thick coat of snow!

The weather keeps us thinking That spring has surely sprung!

Or, do you 'pose it's fooling? And winter is yet to come?

Cleaning sort of goes with spring.

Or, maybe, it's a habit. Days like these we start to think

Of cleaning out the attic. How about checking your policies

And cleaning out any trash? Be sure you've complete protection

When paying out that cash.
