Bluebirds Undertake Many Activities

The Lovely Bluebirds have been busy with their hands lately braiding gimp bracelets, making yard dolls, sewing head Indian designs on suede leather bookmarks and dressing clothes pin dolls as Indians. In between times they have been learning the folk songs and dance "Oh Belinda".

Adella Anderson, Judy Thompson and Meredee Thomson have been teaching the girls gimp braiding. The Bluebirds were divided into four groups of four girls each for the dressing of the clothes pin dolls. The captains of each group were Judy Parsons, Barbara Dobbie, Janet Thompson, and Sharon Keithley. These groups met at the captains' homes and the mothers of the captains assisted the girls.

On February 9 the Bluebirds entertained with "Little Sister" party with appropriate valentine decorations, favors, games and refreshments. "Little Sisters" present were Libby Van Schoelack, Rosie Nash, Ginger Springer, Shannon Mahoney, Patty Barger, Sandra Campbell Shirley Gaines, Beverly Blake, Susan Parsons, Nancy Moyer, Rondie Fullerton

Extension Unit Meets At Ferguson Home

The Heppner Extension Unit held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Gene Ferguson. Purse making was the project with Mrs. Frank Davidson as the leader.

Those making purses were Mesdames Owen Leathers, Jr., Rufus Piper, Marvin Smith, Ray Drake, and Gene Ferguson. Others attending were Mesdames Evan Rill, Earle Blake, Harlan McCurdy, Loyd Burkenbine, and John Bergstrom.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday March 10 at the home of Mrs. Marvin Smith. The project will be landscaping and the leader, Mrs. Maude Casswell.

Soprano Club Hears Dr. Wolff

Dr. Wallace Wolff was guest speaker at the meeting of the Soprano Club Thursday noon at O'Donnell's Cafe, choosing as his subject, "Mothers' Care—What to Do in Minor Accidents While Waiting for the Doctor." During the course of his talk Dr. Wolff pointed out the course of action which an adult should pursue when a child is accidentally burned, swallows something or any one of a dozen minor accidents which occur daily in the home. Dr. Wolff also stressed the use of immediate artificial respiration in cases of electric shock.

The program was arranged by Miss Leta M. Humphreys and dealt especially with accidents which happen to children in the home. Miss Fred Hoskins, Jr. sang a solo, "It is Worth Waiting For", accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael at the piano. Mrs. Marcel Jones was a guest of the club.

50-Year Rebekah Members Feted

Three veteran members, Mrs. Sadie M. Sigsbee, Mrs. Emma Jones and Mrs. Letha Archer, were guests of honor at a potluck dinner Friday evening in the Oddfellows Hall prior to the regular meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge. The guest table was centered by a large anniversary cake decorated in pastel pink and green and a bouquet of pink carnations topped with a large gold "50". Miniature cakes replicas of the large center piece, were presented to each of the honor guests by the Noble Grand, Altha Kirk, and corsages were given to each of them by the lodge with Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers doing the honors.

Following the dinner hour, a drama, patterned along the lines of "East Lynne", was presented to an appreciative audience. This play told of the tragedy of "Little Nell" (Lucy Rodgers) who had been abandoned by her handsome villainous husband (Merlyn Robinson) and had to return to the home of her outcast father (Clara B. Gertson). The Sheriff, (May Gilliam, dressed in full western regalia and huge star of the office) brought the villain to justice and all ended well for Little Nell. Accompanying the drama with selections of mournful music was a chorus composed of Virginia Groshen, Gladys Beckett and Kate Allen. Mrs. Linn Loudon was the accompanist.

During the lodge session, three new members, Mrs. Hester Creswick, Mrs. Loula Bengston and Mrs. Ada Piper were introduced and welcomed.

Initiation ceremonies will be held for a class of candidates on March 6th.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner included Mrs. Frank W. Baker, Mrs. Charles Beckett, Mrs. Frank Ayers, Mrs. R. D. Allstott, Jr., Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Miss Esther Bergstrom and Mrs. J. C. Payne, chairman.

Out of town members present for the meeting included Mrs. Bob Deeter of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott and Mrs. Omer Luttrell of Hermiston.

W S C S TO MEET AT WRIGHT HOME

Mrs. Whitmer Wright will entertain the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at her home on S. Chase street on the evening of March 4th. The meeting is scheduled for 8:00 o'clock. Program chairman is Mrs. Carl McDaniel and Carl Vincent is in charge of the devotions. Committees for the spring sale and tea will be appointed at this meeting.

World Day of Prayer Observed By Churches

Heppner churches joined Friday with other church people around the globe in the annual observance of a World Day of Prayer, conducted on the first Friday in Lent each year. The World Day of Prayer service began on the Fiji Islands and ended on St. Lawrence Island in the Bearing Strait so that every hour in the day, services were in progress somewhere in the world.

All Saints Episcopal church was the host for the local meeting and the topic for this year's observance was "Walk As Children of Light". The purpose of the service is to unite Christians in a bond of prayer and to make offerings for Christian missions at home and abroad.

Mrs. Harvey Wilhite, president of the Union Missionary Society, was program leader. Special music was by Mrs. Lucy M. Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Elvon L. Tull, at the Hammond organ.

Shower Held In Honor Of Mrs. Gronemyer

Mrs. Floyd Sayers and Mrs. Charles O'Donnell entertained Tuesday February 17 at the Sayers home, with a surprise shower in honor of Mrs. Lee Gronemyer.

A corsage was presented to the guest of honor and games were played during the evening. Refreshments were served later to Mesdames Thomas Allen, Mel LaVelle, Stephen Truckositz, Glen McLaughlan, Barbara Ware, Walter Barger, W. C. Collins, Herbert Meador, Wallace Wolf, Gertrude Applegate, Philip Blakney, and Carroll Freeman.

53 Pontiac

A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE

Solid Choice of Solid Citizens!

In its distinctive beauty, its size and comfort, its interior luxury and its all-around performance, Pontiac ranks high among America's quality cars—yet it's priced just above the lowest!

Thus Pontiac has an almost irresistible appeal to people who find it wise to keep their automobile investment at a minimum—without sacrificing quality. It is this unique combination of goodness and price which makes Pontiac the solid choice of those solid citizens who are money wise and quality conscious.

The reasons for this preference were never more obvious than in the 1953 Pontiac. But more important, it carries on Pontiac's tradition of long life and carefree, economical dependability.

Come in and see how this great new car offers wonderful proof that "Dollar for Dollar You Can't Beat a Pontiac."
