

Cancer Society Plans For April Crusade

A group to discuss plans for the April crusade of the American Cancer Society met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Richard Meador in Heppner. Mrs. E. E. Siegley from the state office of the society was present to lead a discussion regarding the life-saving program for cancer control.

Plans for more extensive lay education were discussed and as programs are arranged in various parts of the county they will be announced, Mrs. Siegley said. Several films on cancer education are available to groups wishing to show them and information may be obtained from Miss Martha Tapanainen, county health nurse or Mrs. Maud Casswell, home demonstration agent. Mrs. McDon Bonta accepted the job of publicity chairman and Mrs. Elmer Hill that of literature chairman. Present for the meeting were Mrs. Meador, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Bonta, Mrs. James Driscoll, Mrs. Edgar Collison and Mrs. Mabel Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Warren and children returned the last of the week from Amarillo, Texas, where they spent a month visiting her parents.

Heppner F. F. A. Rated Among Top 9 in State

The Heppner chapter of Future Farmers of America was last week chosen as one of the top nine chapters in the state. Each year the 81 chapters in the state are rated according to their achievements in leadership, scholarship, supervised farming, cooperation, community service, earnings and savings, conduct of meetings, and membership. Those rating highest receive a gold award.

Those making the trip to Corvallis for the state F. F. A. convention were Ron Currin chapter president, Jack Monigal, vice-president, Jim Wightman, reporter, Elwayne Bergstrom, and their instructor, James Allen.

In addition to the convention, visits were made to Salem where the legislature was visited while in session, and a trip to Eugene for the "A" tournament basketball games.

THE TRAIL TROTTERS

The Trail Trotters met at Zoe Bauernfiend's place for a meeting.

The meeting was called to order by Jerald Rea.

We discussed what we would do for the P-TA meeting the 25th of March. We decided to have Jerald tell something about our club and what we would do throughout the year.

After the meeting Jerald Rea gave a demonstration on how to shoe a horse. After that we had refreshments and then went for a long ride on Bauernfiend's ponies.

Merlyn Robinson came and took part in our meeting and also went on our ride with us.
