Easter Sunrise Services Well Attended At Lone

By Echo Palmateer

Around 40 people attended the Easter sunrise services held on the hill south of Lone Sunday morning with Rev. A. Shirley officiating. After the services breakfast was served in the basement of the Community Church by the Maranatha club. At 10 a. m. a program was given at the Community church which consisted of a solovox prelude by Mrs. Frederick Martin, a welcome address by Adon Hamlett, superintendent of the Sunday school, songs, recitations, readings and exercises by beginners, primary and junior classes. Those having recitations were Marjorie and Terry O'Connor, Pamela McCabe, Jerry Stefani, Cheryl Lundell sang a solo accompanied by Karen Lundell and Mildred Seehafer sang 'In a Garden' accompanied by Mrs. L. L. Howton. Mrs. Charles O'Connor was the pianist for the other music. The teachers were Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Ralph Crum, Mrs. David Eietmann and Mrs. Milton Morgan. Jualianna Rietmann announced the program. The sermon 'Assured Assurance' by Rev. Shirley followed the program.

In the evening the Junior choir led by Mrs. Claude Riley and accompanied by Mrs. Howton sang the following songs: Living For Jesus, He Arose, He Lives, Master the Tempest is Raging, No one Ever Cared for Me, The Old Rugged Cross, An Evening Prayer and Dear Lord Forgive. Those singing solo and duet parts were Mildred Seehafer, Peggy Allen, Judy Howton, Virginia Griffin and Larry Rietmann. Others in the choir were Gary Brenner, Gerald and Kieth Rea, Ernest Drake, Melvin Martin, Carol McCoy, Sue and Ann Belle Coleman, Marlene Baker, Nina Griffin and Marlene Griffin and Bonnie Crum.

Cookies, punch and coffee were served after the evening program.

Mrs. Bruce Keene was elected chairman of the Lone Extension Unit at a meeting in the Community church basement Friday April 3. Other officers elected were Mrs. Harold Sherer, vice chairman and Mrs. Frederick, secretary-treasurer. At the business meeting conducted by the chairman, Mrs. A. L. McCabe, committees were appointed to serve at the Home Makers Festival May 5. Mrs. Omar Rietmann talked on the A. C. W. W. preceding the meeting. Mrs. E. M. Baker and Mrs. Earl McKinney were loaders on Buffet Meals. A buffet meal was served at noon consisting of scalloped chicken, Green beans, relishes, jelly, salad, rolls, bread, dessert and tea and coffee. Mrs. Maureen Nelson, high school instructor and several high school girls attended the meeting. The leaders gave instructions on how to serve the meals. The next meeting will be April 30 on out door meals.

A stork shower was given in honor of Mrs. Merle Baker at the home of Mrs. Delmar Crawford on Thursday afternoon. She received many lovely gifts. Other hostesses were Mrs. Ernest McCabe, Mrs.

James Barnett, Mrs. Elmer Holtz and Mrs. Pete Cannon. Guests coming from a distance were Mrs. Ivan Orton and children and Mrs. Dick Britton and children from Hermiston and Mrs. Norman Cassidy and son of Pendleton.
