

Social Happenings . . .

Dance Nets $356 for Lone Band Fund

A dance was held at the Lone Legion hall Saturday, April 11 to raise funds to buy additional band uniforms and equipment. It was sponsored by the Lone Parent-Teacher association.

A skit and songs were presented during the intermission by Lawrence Jones, Larry Rietmann, Malcolm McKinney, Judy Howton, Peggy Allen and Dennis Swanson. A total of $365.20 was raised for the band fund.

Paul Pettyjohn Jr. won a $5.00 prize for making the largest advance sale of tickets, selling $54 worth.

The music was by Gene Reitmman's orchestra and Mrs. Garland Swanson was general chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McMurtry made a business trip to Pendleton the first of the week.

*So flattering
So stylish*

TWO PIECE Dresses

- 50% Orlon
- 50% Cotton
- Dan River Seersucker

A two piece dress you can dress up or down to your heart's (and fashions) delight. Of magical seersucker that washes so easily and dries so quickly. Just the thing to wear in the car or take on that weekend jaunt—perfect for the hot summer months ahead. Comes in stripes, grey white, brown-white or blue-white in a good range of sizes.

Claudien's

High School Students Enjoy Elks Sponsored Basketball Party

Heppner high school students were guests of the Elks last Friday evening at a party given in honor of the Mustang basketball team and their coach. More than 100 students enjoyed a full evening of entertainment.

Leslie Grant was in charge of the entertainment which included square dancing, bingo games, card games etc. The pool tables were also opened to use by the students. Aiding in the kitchen were the P-TA class mothers who kept the hot dogs, punch, coffee and donuts ready for the group. The mothers were Mrs. Cal Sumner, Mrs. Joe Hughes, Mrs. Dick Borman and Mrs. Frank Andresen who were assisted by Mrs. Frank Connor and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl.

Frank Turner was general chairman for the evening and he was assisted by Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tamblin, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Winkle.

Several of the parents joined the party as did many of the high school faculty members.

Degree of Honor Annual Inspection Meeting Held Tuesday

The annual inspection meeting of the Degree of Honor lodge was held Tuesday evening in the Parish hall of All Saints Episcopal church. At this time, Mrs. Ethel Linholm Hiatt, state director and national treasurer, and Mrs. Minnie Davis Card, state organizer and national committeewoman, made their official visits to the order. Other dignitaries present were Mrs. Irene Scott, state president, of John Day; Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, state secretary of Portland; and Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, past state president, of Heppner.

Initiation ceremonies were presented for eight candidates: Mrs. Alvina Padberg, Ione; Mrs. Nono Leathers, Mrs. Lena Hisey, Mrs. Maxine Grey, Mrs. Irene Casebeer, Mrs. Edna Harshman, Mrs. Alice Smith and Miss Irene Zinter of Heppner.

Gifts of hand-painted aprons and handkerchiefs were presented to the state and national officers.

Following the regular business session, a social hour was enjoyed. Pouring were Mrs. Hiatt and Mrs. Card. Bouquets of daffodils and spirea were used on the tea table and about the rooms. Hostesses included Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. Adelle Bailey and Mrs. Jesse C. Payne.

Prior to the opening of lodge, Mrs. Theta Stratton, president, entertained with a "coffee hour" at her home on S. Chase street complimenting the visiting officers and Mrs. Alice McCabe, immediate past president, entertained with a luncheon earlier in the day in their honor.

NAZARENE EVANGELIST TO BE AT IONE

Rev. Joseph W. Selz, Walla Walla Church of the Nazarene evangelist will hold a service and show pictures of the Holy Land, Saturday, April 18 at the Baptist church in Ione. The services will start at 7:30.

He is currently holding services at Arlington. All are Welcome.

Coming Events

Friday April 17—Sans Souci Rebekah lodge

Sunday April 19—Smorgasbord at Ione

Monday April 20—Chamber of commerce, noon at O'Donnell's Rainbow for Girls American Legion business meeting

Soroptimist dinner, home of Leta Humphreys

Tuesday April 21—American Legion Auxiliary

Thursday April 23—Soroptimists, noon, at O'Donnell's All Saints Episcopal auxiliary Elks

Friday April 24—Ruth chapter, No. 32, OES.

Heppner Delegates Attend Episcopal Meet In Bend

Mrs. R. B. Rice, Mrs. Frank W. Baker and Mrs. J. C. Payne, representatives of the Women's Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal Church; M. R. Wightman, Jimmie Wightman, Terry Thompson, Ralph Marlatt, Jeanne Marie Graham and Patsy Wright, vestryman, and members of the Young Peoples' Fellowship, returned Sunday evening from Bend where they attended a three day convocation of the Eastern Oregon Diocese. Highlight of the session was the visit of Rt. Rev. Stephen E. Keeler, bishop of Minnesota, who gave the principal address at the banquet in the Oregon National Guard Armory on Saturday night and was guest speaker at the Sunday morning service in Trinity Episcopal Church.

Several former Heppnerites were in attendance at the convocation, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Otheo Crawford, Gearheart; Mrs. George Corwin, Hood River, provincial secretary of the Church Periodicals club; Mrs. Harold Muhman, (Mary McDuffee) Burns; and Mrs. Mabel Hughes, a past president of the Women's Auxiliary of Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Frank W. Baker of the local Auxiliary was appointed to membership on the nominating committee for the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford are leaving next week for Texas where they will spend some time visiting his brother, Garfield, and other relatives. They also plan to visit in Southern California en route.

Bookworms Meet at Floyd Jones Home

Mrs. Floyd Jones entertained the Bookworms Club at her country home in the Rhea Creek section Tuesday evening. Mrs. C. W. McNamer reviewed the book "Tapioca" by Stryker. Mrs. Ethel Lyngholm gave an informative talk on her summer's trip to Ireland, England and Scotland and showed a film of the tour.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Miss Lulu Hager, Mrs. Fred Parrish, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. Cornett Green, Mrs. C. W. McNamer and their guest, Mrs. Lyngholm.

Carnation Club Meets At Casebeer Home

The Carnation Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Alvie Casebeer on N. Main street with Mrs. Carl King and Mrs. Betty Pearson as assistant hostesses. Following a grief business session, bingo was played. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Miss Maryann Jensen, Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, Mrs. John W. Farra, Miss Joyce Casebeer, Mrs. Alvin Padberg of Ione and Mrs. Minnie D. Card of Portland.

Regional Governor Of Soroptimists To Pay Official Visit Here

At the soroptimist luncheon on Thursday April 9 at O'Donnell's it was announced that Monday April 20 is the time set by Mrs. Lily Quarnberg, regional governor, to make her official visit to the Heppner club.

A committee was appointed to plan a pot luck dinner to be held that evening at the home of Miss Leta Humphreys.

It was announced that the petition for the formation of a cemetery maintenance district is ready for signing, and a committee was appointed to see about getting the required number of signatures.

Easter Ball Given For Heppner FFA

Thirty-six Heppner high school couples were guests of the Heppner American Legion April 4 at a dance for the Future Farmers of America held at the local Legion hall. Music was furnished by Bud Ordon's orchestra.

At intermission time Lynn Wright was crowned Queen of the Easter ball and her court of princesses Karen Prock, and Mary Ruth Green were presented. Refreshments were served by the Legion.

SUNDAY DINNER GUESTS

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher of Walla Walla, Washington, Mrs. W. M. Fisher of Post Falls, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Taylor and daughter.

Extension Unit Program Planned at County Meeting

The annual county program planning for extension units was held April 13 at the Pine City school with delegates from all eight units present. Miss Viola Hansen, state agent, home economics was present for the meeting and discussed program goals for next year.

The delegates considered each community need, as well as overall county problems, and selected the following projects.

October, keeping up to date with textiles; November, Making candles; December, food for entertaining; January, salads and salad dressing; February, landscape planting; March, what to do until the doctor comes; April, frozen fresh foods, containers; May, dry cleaning. Workshop will be one better cotton dress.

Special meetings will be held on knitting and each community will select knitting leaders to formulate plans and interested women may enroll for classes through extension meetings. Textile painting meetings are also planned where requested.

Mrs. Earl Blake, county committee member, conducted the business meeting at which time new county committee members were elected. They included Mrs. Bill Garner, Boardman, Mrs. Claude Berger, Irrigon, three year terms, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Ione, one-year term. Other members assisting with the program planning included Mrs. Paul Slaughter, Irrigon and Mrs. Ben Anderson, Rhea Creek.

Mrs. Maud Casswell, county extension agent, gave a report on the 1952 program and complimented all units on having 100 percent representation at county meetings, training and project leader meetings. She reported there were 44 meetings conducted by project leaders with an attendance of 501 homemakers. 272 extension meetings were sponsored by county families with an attendance of 7,904 and the junior extension program includes

Theme Set For Homemaker's Festival

The annual festival program was planned by the Extension Home Economics county committee at a meeting held Tuesday in Heppner at the home of Maud C. Casswell, County Agent, Home Economics.

"The Gateway to Better Living" was the theme selected for the festival which will be held May 5th and will begin at 10:00 a. m. with registration and will close at 3:30, according to the chairman, Mrs. Lester Cox, of Lexington. The main speaker for the day is Harold F. Hollands, professor of agricultural economics, Oregon State College.

County committee members working on the festival plans are Mrs. Lester Cox, chairman, Lexington; Mrs. Omar Rietmann, vice-chairman, Ione; Mrs. Russell Miller, secretary, Boardman; Mrs. Earle Blake, Lena; Mrs. R. K. Drake, Heppner; Mrs. Ben Anderson, Rhea Creek; Mrs. Ida Slaughter, Irrigon.

The Homemaker's Festival will be held at Ione with Mrs. L. A. McCabe, chairman of the Ione Extension Unit, general chairman for the hostess unit plans.

Architect Shows Schools To P-TA

The Heppner P-TA meeting was held at the school Wednesday April 8.

Mrs. Stephen Thompson was program chairman. She introduced Mrs. Leslie Grant whose rhythm band played and did folk dances. The junior band directed by James Kamperud then played several numbers which included a solo by Mike Gray.

Mr. Tufts of the firm of Freeman, Haslip and Turfts, architects, showed colored slides on the trend of building in new schools. He showed many completed elementary schools and the interiors of some. Much emphasis is put on the amount and kind of light in the school rooms today.

There was a short business meeting after which refreshments were served.

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Earl L. Soward, Pastor. Bible school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11. The pastor will speak on "New Steps into Christ". Evening service begins at 7:30 with the singing of a number of choruses. The sermon will be "Excuses."

There will be special services each evening from Monday through Friday. The Rev. Hiram Dawson, of Pendleton will speak Monday; Truman Robbins, Milton on Tuesday; the local pastor on Wednesday; Paul Moore of Athena; Thursday and Wallace 26 4-H clubs with 183 members.

Sixteen other delegates from all sections of the county assisted with the program.

Jones, pastor at Hermiston on Friday.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

J. Palmer Sorlien, Minister Sunday April 19.

Morning Worship and Sermon at 11 a. m. Special music by the Choir. Mr. Oliver Creswick, Director.

Sunday Church School at 9:45 a. m. We have a class for every Age. Youth Fellowship Class, Adult Bible Class and Young Adult Bible Class at this same hour. Mr. Oliver Creswick, Superintendent.

Choir practice Thursday, at 8 p. m.

Annual Meeting and Fourth Quarterly Conference Thursday, April 23 with Potluck Supper at 6:30 p. m. Dr. Joseph M. Adams, District Superintendent of the Portland District will be with us for this conference. Everyone is Welcome.

Suzanna Wesley Circle of the Womens Society of Christian Service will meet Wednesday April 22 at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Mary Van Stevens drove to Walla Walla, Monday where she spent the day transacting business.

NEED Envelopes, Phone 882

Ends Saturday

APRIL 18

SALE OF SALES!

Buy twice as much for only one cent more!

AS ADVERTISED IN LIFE · LOOK · POST · COLLIER'S · FARM JOURNAL

Humphreys Drug Co.

Library Benefit

Smorgasbord

IONE LEGION HALL
Sunday, April 19
Serving from 4 to 7 p. m.

Adults $1.75 Children 75c

Sponsored by Women's Topic Club

NOW! New Living Room Beauty with Genuine Gilreath

LEATHER TOPPED TABLES!

Add new charm to your home with gracefully-styled tables by Gilreath . . . nationally famed for authentic styling, quality craftsmanship, treasured enjoyment. See them, admire them . . . you'll want all four!

Genuine Leather Tops
Hand Padded
Hand-tooled Gold Leaf
Select Hardwood Bases

33⁹⁵

Should be dollars more... but our savings are YOURS!

Case Furniture Company

NO ROAD NEEDED FOR A Jeep

With the power and traction of 4-wheel drive and the maneuverability of the Universal 'Jeep', you can travel cross-country . . . making your way through mud, sand or snow that would stop ordinary vehicles.

Now the Universal 'Jeep' is powered by the famous Hurricane F-Head Engine . . . has 20% greater horsepower . . . marked increase in operating economy with outstanding performance. See the 'Jeep' today . . .

Farley Motor Company

HEPPNER

"WHEN I SAY COFFEE I MEAN FOLGER'S!"