

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington Three Links Club met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Majeske on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. George Irvin presiding. After the usual business of the afternoon lovely refreshments were served to the following ladies, Mesdames, W. E. McMillan, Bob Davidson, Earl Warner, Oris Padberg, A. F. Majeske, Bill Smethurst, Audrey Anstedt and Geo. Irvin and the hostess Mrs. Majeske.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson returned Sunday from Spokane where they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Johnson's sister who passed away there last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breshears were guests at the home of their daughter in The Dalles on Sunday. They attended their granddaughters first Holy Communion at St. Peter's Catholic church. The Holy Rebekah Lodge met last week with the Noble Grand Mrs. C. C. Jones in the chair. At this time Mrs. Archie Munkers resigned as trustee and Mrs. Audrey Anstedt was elected to fill the vacancy. The delegates were elected to go to Grand Lodge, those being Mrs. Bob Davidson and Mrs. Lester Cox. Mrs. Cox was also recommended for the District Deputy. The alternates to go were Mrs. W. E. McMillan and Mrs. A. F. Majeske. The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served in the kitchen.

Those attending the Oddfellows Lodge in Heppner on Wednesday night, at their initiation were: Jimmie David, Ted McMillan, Oris Padberg, George Irvin, E. E. McFadden and Cecil Jones.

Earl Miller is working at the Walter Jepson home for a few days and staying at the home of his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones. Earl has received his summons to go to Portland for his physical for the army on April 23.

The Lexington Campfire Girls met at the home of their guardian Mrs. Cecil Jones on Wednesday at which time they worked on the place cards for their Mother and Father dinner to be held in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smethurst were The Dalles visitors on business Wednesday and to visit their daughter Mrs. Hermann Ziegler.

The Lexington Grange met at the local hall on Saturday night with the Master Cecil Jones in the chair. At this time it was voted to sponsor Patricia McMillan as the Lexington Grange princess for the coming year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan of this city. After a very fine program by the lecturer Mrs. Karl Miller fine refreshments were served in the basement.

Mrs. James Dunbar is at home again after several months stay in a hospital in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kendall were La Grande visitors on Monday where they took their daughter Lucille to consult an eye specialist.

Thursday night the Lexington school entertained with a short play and a band school in the school auditorium. Beginning of the program were several numbers "The Thunderer", High School Cadets, "Step Along", "Take it Away", "Waltzing with Nell", "At Sundown", "I'll see you in My Dreams" and "Honey" played by Asa Way and Beverley Nolan, under the direction of Fred were well known in this community, having operated the Arlot Fleming ranch for a number of years.

Monument News

(Continued From Page 1)

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard business visitors in Heppner April 10th and 11th. They were overnight guests of Mrs. Anna Bayless.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gassner left April 10 with a load of black Angus cattle for the sale in Klamath Falls April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hinton and daughters Sharon and Mary Ella spent the Easter vacation in The Dalles. They were guests of Mrs. Hinton's sister Dorothy Shank. While gone they visited the Mary Hill museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard, Katie Hinton and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Peterman spent the Easter vacation in La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Barnard were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Simas.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Round and sons visited in Long Creek last Monday. On Tuesday they returned to their home in Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweek left Tuesday for Eureka, California where Mr. Sweek has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Round were

Gomes band instructor. The play was "Gallopin' Grandma", with the following players, Mr. Maxwell, Asa Way; Mrs. Maxwell, Cherry Grey; Willie, Larry Groves; Louise, Joan Breeding; Grandma, Phyllis Nolan; Elmer, Bob Steagall; "Muggsy", Keith Gray; with Norman Miles as stage manager and Mrs. Mel Bates as director.

The band entertainment was the first real concert of the year, with the following taking part: Joan Breeding, Cherry Grey, Maureen Groves, George Hermann, Donald Hunt, Larry Henderson, Janet Kendall, Margaret Kendall, Denney McMillan, Pat McMillan, Inez McFadden, Betty Messenger, Gerald Messenger, Franklin Miles, Beverley Nolan, Bill Steagall and Asa Way.

Max Breeding and Earl Miller returned Wednesday from a few days in La Grande at the W. I. Miller home.

Heppner Telephone Man Given Special Service Award

A five-man Pacific Telephone line crew, credited with saving a Salem housewife from drowning

in the surf near Depoe Bay last September, Friday received their bronze Vail Medal award.

Such awards, according to F. A. Dresslar, vice president and general manager, are made annually to telephone men and women "for noteworthy public service" under a memorial created in 1920 for pioneer AT&T president Theodore N. Vail.

Cited for their "initiative, resourcefulness and prompt and courageous action" in saving the life of Mrs. Gertrude Emerson were: Henry Weise, Newport construction foreman, Robert Kelly, Roseburg lineman, Wallace Donnelly, Newport lineman, Herbert Ooering, Portland splicer's helper, and Robert Bahm, Newport laborer.

Mrs. Emerson, who was swept into the sea by a wave breaking over the rocks near Otter Crest, was rescued after struggling in the icy water for more than 30 minutes. She was pulled to safety from better than 125 feet out on a weighted headline thrown by Foreman Weise.

Only other Vail Medal awarded this year on the Pacific coast went to Gene M. Brown, Bakersville, California, for his heroism in rescuing a fellow lineman,

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Molly Ann, to Dr. and Mrs. Bernard H. McMurdo of San Mateo, Calif., on April 2. This is their third child and only daughter. Mrs. A. D. McMurdo is in San Fatoe ssaying with her son and two grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warmouth

and daughters of Portland were weekend guests at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley.

Mrs. Harold Wright has returned to her home in the Rhea Creek section after spending some eight days in Pendleton where she was a patient at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong had as their guests over Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Winters and family of McNary and Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins of Pendleton.

Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Lora Moyer of Heppner and their guests, Mrs. Maude Pointer and Mrs. Emma Peck of Lexington made a business trip to Pendleton the last of the week.

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson drove to La Grande Wednesday evening where she attended a meeting of the Civil Defense organization for Eastern Oregon. This was a two-day session.

Mrs. Minnie Davis Card, Portland, state organizer and national committeewomen for the Degree of Honor Lodge arrived in Heppner Tuesday to spend a week working in connection with the local organization. She was met in Arlington by Mrs. Clara B. Gertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith and daughters Kathy and Jennifer, spent the Easter weekend in Naches, Wash., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson of Condon visited briefly in Heppner Tuesday. They were en route home from Pendleton where he attended a meeting of Union Oil dealers Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Wilkinson left the first of the week for Portland where she planned to spend a few days on business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabill and Bob spent the Easter weekend in Seattle visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Don Fleck.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Harold Sweek came to Monument by stage last Tuesday to visit his brother Earl and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek being in John Day that day, Harold had to return to Long Creek without seeing them.

Miss Leila McLachlen came down from Spokane Saturday to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Piri L. Howell had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. James Boland and children of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Moon and son, Larry, were here Saturday from Pendleton to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix at Pioneer Memorial hospital. Mr. Dix's brother, and wife Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dix of Portland spent part of last week here with them.

Mrs. Clive Huston returned on Saturday from Portland where she spent several days undergoing medical treatment. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parker of Pasco, Wash. brought her home from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Matteson motored to Mayville Sunday to spend the day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knights.

Mrs. Clara G. Gertson had as her guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Don Platt and son Jimmie of Moro.

M. R. Wightman left Sunday afternoon for Ontario where he will spend several days on business. From there, he will continue to Bend to attend the convocation of the Eastern Oregon Diocese of the Episcopal church over the weekend.

Mrs. Ted Pierson and daughter, Marjorie, were over from Condon to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch, Jr.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Heppner Telephone Man Given Special Service Award

A five-man Pacific Telephone line crew, credited with saving a Salem housewife from drowning

in the surf near Depoe Bay last September, Friday received their bronze Vail Medal award.

Such awards, according to F. A. Dresslar, vice president and general manager, are made annually to telephone men and women "for noteworthy public service" under a memorial created in 1920 for pioneer AT&T president Theodore N. Vail.

Cited for their "initiative, resourcefulness and prompt and courageous action" in saving the life of Mrs. Gertrude Emerson were: Henry Weise, Newport construction foreman, Robert Kelly, Roseburg lineman, Wallace Donnelly, Newport lineman, Herbert Ooering, Portland splicer's helper, and Robert Bahm, Newport laborer.

Mrs. Emerson, who was swept into the sea by a wave breaking over the rocks near Otter Crest, was rescued after struggling in the icy water for more than 30 minutes. She was pulled to safety from better than 125 feet out on a weighted headline thrown by Foreman Weise.

Only other Vail Medal awarded this year on the Pacific coast went to Gene M. Brown, Bakersville, California, for his heroism in rescuing a fellow lineman,

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Molly Ann, to Dr. and Mrs. Bernard H. McMurdo of San Mateo, Calif., on April 2. This is their third child and only daughter. Mrs. A. D. McMurdo is in San Fatoe ssaying with her son and two grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warmouth

and daughters of Portland were weekend guests at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley.

Mrs. Harold Wright has returned to her home in the Rhea Creek section after spending some eight days in Pendleton where she was a patient at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong had as their guests over Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Winters and family of McNary and Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins of Pendleton.

Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Lora Moyer of Heppner and their guests, Mrs. Maude Pointer and Mrs. Emma Peck of Lexington made a business trip to Pendleton the last of the week.

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson drove to La Grande Wednesday evening where she attended a meeting of the Civil Defense organization for Eastern Oregon. This was a two-day session.

Mrs. Minnie Davis Card, Portland, state organizer and national committeewomen for the Degree of Honor Lodge arrived in Heppner Tuesday to spend a week working in connection with the local organization. She was met in Arlington by Mrs. Clara B. Gertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith and daughters Kathy and Jennifer, spent the Easter weekend in Naches, Wash., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson of Condon visited briefly in Heppner Tuesday. They were en route home from Pendleton where he attended a meeting of Union Oil dealers Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Wilkinson left the first of the week for Portland where she planned to spend a few days on business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabill and Bob spent the Easter weekend in Seattle visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Don Fleck.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Harold Sweek came to Monument by stage last Tuesday to visit his brother Earl and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek being in John Day that day, Harold had to return to Long Creek without seeing them.

Miss Leila McLachlen came down from Spokane Saturday to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Piri L. Howell had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. James Boland and children of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Moon and son, Larry, were here Saturday from Pendleton to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix at Pioneer Memorial hospital. Mr. Dix's brother, and wife Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dix of Portland spent part of last week here with them.

Mrs. Clive Huston returned on Saturday from Portland where she spent several days undergoing medical treatment. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parker of Pasco, Wash. brought her home from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Matteson motored to Mayville Sunday to spend the day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knights.

Mrs. Clara G. Gertson had as her guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Don Platt and son Jimmie of Moro.

M. R. Wightman left Sunday afternoon for Ontario where he will spend several days on business. From there, he will continue to Bend to attend the convocation of the Eastern Oregon Diocese of the Episcopal church over the weekend.

Mrs. Ted Pierson and daughter, Marjorie, were over from Condon to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch, Jr.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Heppner Telephone Man Given Special Service Award

A five-man Pacific Telephone line crew, credited with saving a Salem housewife from drowning

in the surf near Depoe Bay last September, Friday received their bronze Vail Medal award.

Such awards, according to F. A. Dresslar, vice president and general manager, are made annually to telephone men and women "for noteworthy public service" under a memorial created in 1920 for pioneer AT&T president Theodore N. Vail.

Cited for their "initiative, resourcefulness and prompt and courageous action" in saving the life of Mrs. Gertrude Emerson were: Henry Weise, Newport construction foreman, Robert Kelly, Roseburg lineman, Wallace Donnelly, Newport lineman, Herbert Ooering, Portland splicer's helper, and Robert Bahm, Newport laborer.

Mrs. Emerson, who was swept into the sea by a wave breaking over the rocks near Otter Crest, was rescued after struggling in the icy water for more than 30 minutes. She was pulled to safety from better than 125 feet out on a weighted headline thrown by Foreman Weise.

Only other Vail Medal awarded this year on the Pacific coast went to Gene M. Brown, Bakersville, California, for his heroism in rescuing a fellow lineman,

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Molly Ann, to Dr. and Mrs. Bernard H. McMurdo of San Mateo, Calif., on April 2. This is their third child and only daughter. Mrs. A. D. McMurdo is in San Fatoe ssaying with her son and two grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warmouth

and daughters of Portland were weekend guests at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley.

Mrs. Harold Wright has returned to her home in the Rhea Creek section after spending some eight days in Pendleton where she was a patient at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong had as their guests over Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Winters and family of McNary and Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins of Pendleton.

Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Lora Moyer of Heppner and their guests, Mrs. Maude Pointer and Mrs. Emma Peck of Lexington made a business trip to Pendleton the last of the week.

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson drove to La Grande Wednesday evening where she attended a meeting of the Civil Defense organization for Eastern Oregon. This was a two-day session.

Mrs. Minnie Davis Card, Portland, state organizer and national committeewomen for the Degree of Honor Lodge arrived in Heppner Tuesday to spend a week working in connection with the local organization. She was met in Arlington by Mrs. Clara B. Gertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith and daughters Kathy and Jennifer, spent the Easter weekend in Naches, Wash., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson of Condon visited briefly in Heppner Tuesday. They were en route home from Pendleton where he attended a meeting of Union Oil dealers Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Wilkinson left the first of the week for Portland where she planned to spend a few days on business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabill and Bob spent the Easter weekend in Seattle visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Don Fleck.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Harold Sweek came to Monument by stage last Tuesday to visit his brother Earl and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek being in John Day that day, Harold had to return to Long Creek without seeing them.

Miss Leila McLachlen came down from Spokane Saturday to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Piri L. Howell had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. James Boland and children of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Moon and son, Larry, were here Saturday from Pendleton to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix at Pioneer Memorial hospital. Mr. Dix's brother, and wife Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dix of Portland spent part of last week here with them.

Mrs. Clive Huston returned on Saturday from Portland where she spent several days undergoing medical treatment. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parker of Pasco, Wash. brought her home from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Matteson motored to Mayville Sunday to spend the day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knights.

Mrs. Clara G. Gertson had as her guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Don Platt and son Jimmie of Moro.

M. R. Wightman left Sunday afternoon for Ontario where he will spend several days on business. From there, he will continue to Bend to attend the convocation of the Eastern Oregon Diocese of the Episcopal church over the weekend.

Mrs. Ted Pierson and daughter, Marjorie, were over from Condon to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch, Jr.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Heppner Telephone Man Given Special Service Award

A five-man Pacific Telephone line crew, credited with saving a Salem housewife from drowning

in the surf near Depoe Bay last September, Friday received their bronze Vail Medal award.

Such awards, according to F. A. Dresslar, vice president and general manager, are made annually to telephone men and women "for noteworthy public service" under a memorial created in 1920 for pioneer AT&T president Theodore N. Vail.

Cited for their "initiative, resourcefulness and prompt and courageous action" in saving the life of Mrs. Gertrude Emerson were: Henry Weise, Newport construction foreman, Robert Kelly, Roseburg lineman, Wallace Donnelly, Newport lineman, Herbert Ooering, Portland splicer's helper, and Robert Bahm, Newport laborer.

Mrs. Emerson, who was swept into the sea by a wave breaking over the rocks near Otter Crest, was rescued after struggling in the icy water for more than 30 minutes. She was pulled to safety from better than 125 feet out on a weighted headline thrown by Foreman Weise.

Only other Vail Medal awarded this year on the Pacific coast went to Gene M. Brown, Bakersville, California, for his heroism in rescuing a fellow lineman,

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Molly Ann, to Dr. and Mrs. Bernard H. McMurdo of San Mateo, Calif., on April 2. This is their third child and only daughter. Mrs. A. D. McMurdo is in San Fatoe ssaying with her son and two grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warmouth

and daughters of Portland were weekend guests at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley.

Mrs. Harold Wright has returned to her home in the Rhea Creek section after spending some eight days in Pendleton where she was a patient at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong had as their guests over Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Winters and family of McNary and Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins of Pendleton.

Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Lora Moyer of Heppner and their guests, Mrs. Maude Pointer and Mrs. Emma Peck of Lexington made a business trip to Pendleton the last of the week.

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson drove to La Grande Wednesday evening where she attended a meeting of the Civil Defense organization for Eastern Oregon. This was a two-day session.

Mrs. Minnie Davis Card, Portland, state organizer and national committeewomen for the Degree of Honor Lodge arrived in Heppner Tuesday to spend a week working in connection with the local organization. She was met in Arlington by Mrs. Clara B. Gertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith and daughters Kathy and Jennifer, spent the Easter weekend in Naches, Wash., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson of Condon visited briefly in Heppner Tuesday. They were en route home from Pendleton where he attended a meeting of Union Oil dealers Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Wilkinson left the first of the week for Portland where she planned to spend a few days on business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabill and Bob spent the Easter weekend in Seattle visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Don Fleck.

Harley Anderson left Friday morning for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ben Vinson who will enter a nursing home in the city for medical care.

John Wightman and Jesse C. Payne were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F. at the meeting of Willows Lodge No. 66 Wednesday evening. Grand Lodge convenes on May 20 in Portland. Wightman was recommended to the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master for the local lodge.

John Day April 7. Mrs. Round remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alta Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis and son Dicky returned Wednesday from a trip to Eugene and Roseburg and Medford where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waterhouse.

Harold Sweek came to Monument by stage last Tuesday to visit his brother Earl and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek being in John Day that day, Harold had to return to Long Creek without seeing them.

Miss Leila McLachlen came down from Spokane Saturday to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Piri L. Howell had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. James Boland and children of Klamath Falls.