

The Sunday Smorgasbord Takes Over $500

By Echo Palmateer
 A fund of $500 was taken in at annual Smorgasbord Sunday noon sponsored by the men's Topic Club. The Smorgasbord table was decorated with a tiered arrangement of yellow and orchid carnations and pink snapdragons dotted by Mary Van's Flower shop. Leppner and yellow candles, walls were decorated with Scandinavian plaques and flags. Dining tables each had a Scandinavian doll napkin on it. Among the many varieties of food served were lutefisk, sill, dish meat balls, herring salad, different kinds of beans, and girls waited on the tables wearing Scandinavian aprons and caps. The proceeds will be toward purchasing island views for the Ione Public Library and other equipment. Mrs. L. Lundell is president of the club and Mrs. Victor Rietman was the general chairman of the Smorgasbord. The band rated a 2 plus at the picnic festival in La Grande last week. Those playing solos and ratings were Dennis Swanson, cornet, excellent; Larry Rietman, saxophone, excellent; for division Paul Pettyjohn Jr., John Howton, cornets, excellent; and Melvin Martin, trom-
