

NEWS OF THE Ione Schools

Mrs. Ely, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Thoreson, Mrs. Osibov, Mr. Raskin and Mr. Osibov attended the last meeting of the Morrow County education association at Boardman last Monday evening. Mrs. Ely completed her term as president of the Association. Walt Turner is the new president. Mrs. Lavern Partlow was installed as the secretary for the ensuing year, replacing Mrs. Nelson. Osibov gave a summary of the legislation passed by the last Oregon legislative session.

The Eastern Oregon College traveling group put on their show of music and dialogue for the Ione school on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. It was a very interesting program. Our children were especially interested in seeing Ruby Ann Rietmann who was a member of the group. Ruby Ann has received several awards of distinction lately.

The Ione school band played a free concert of an hour duration in the new cafeteria last Friday evening. The concert was well attended and played quality music in spite of two adverse incidents. Denny Swanson played with a swollen lip incurred from being hit by a baseball in the game with Stanfield Friday afternoon.

The Cardinal baseball team won the Little Wheat League championship by defeating Stanfield 12 to 4 last Friday. Peterson and Baker were the battery. Bristow and Palmer hit triples. The Cardinals playoff with Echo on Tuesday for the District 7B championship.

Duane Baker with a straight one average again topped the honor roll. Dennis Swanson and Donald Bristow with 1.50 averages were also on the fifth six-weeks honor roll.

Horseshoes and tennis have replaced shuffleboard and ping-pong as free time entertainment among Ione school students. The absence of marbles games this year is also news for this time of year. Many of the boys went fishing the past weekend. Only one reported a limit catch. Lawrence Jones caught the limit both Saturday and Sunday on upper Rock Creek according to reports.

Dale Hug Services Held Saturday At Boardman

By Flossie Coats
