

Former Rodeo Queen is Married Sunday at Hermiston

By Echo Palmateer

Miss Ingrid Hermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann, became the bride of Harlan Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wate Crawford at a double ring ceremony at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Hermiston Sunday May 10 at 3 p. m. with Rev. Armin Rietz officiating. The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white dress fashioned of Chantilly lace bodice long sleeves with peplum over nylon tulle skirt. A crown of imported lace held a double veil of pure silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies and lily of the valley with streamers with little lover's knots each holding small flowers.

Miss Ruby Ann Rietmann was the maid of honor. She wore an apple green net ballerina dress over taffeta with head dress and slippers, and mitts to match the dress. She carried a bouquet of gladiolus, matching her dress. The bride maids were Carol Jackson and Elise Bauernfeld and the junior bridesmaids were Cheryl Hartman and Marilyn Morgan. They all wore shell pink ballerina dresses of net over taffeta with slippers, head dresses and mitts to match their dresses and carried gladiolus to match Phyllis Thornberg was the flower girl. She wore an apple green organdy dress and carried a basket of rose petals. Gary Morgan was ring bearer and wore a navy suit, and carried a heart shaped satin pillow with a pink satin rose with the rings nestled in the center of the rose.

Arthur Crawford was his brother's best man and the ushers were Helmut Hermann, Clyde Crawford, Rollo Crawford and Delmar Crawford. The candle lighters were Mrs. Delmer Crawford and Mrs. James Pettijohn. They wore yellow dresses.

Mrs. Armin Rietz was the organist and Mrs. Jean Pardue sang the Wedding Prayer and the Lord's Prayer.

The church was decorated with white stock and pink snapdragons. White streamers with white bells and bows were down the aisles.

The bride's mother wore a light blue dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore navy blue with pink accessories. They each wore corsages of pink roses.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the basement of the church. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the four tiered cake the rest was cut by Mrs. Alec Hunt, aunt of the bride and served by Mrs. Milton, sister of the groom. Mrs. Julian Rauch poured the coffee, Mrs. Fred Rauch poured the tea, both are aunts of the bride. Mrs. Tad Miller, sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Irvin Rauch and Mrs. John Hartman, cousins of the bride, had charge of the gifts and Mrs. Joe Titzer had charge of the guest book. Others assisting about the rooms were Mrs. John Voorhees, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Henry Rauch, Mrs. Al Fetsch and Mrs. Douglas Watson. Mrs. Victor Rietmann had charge of the decorating for the reception. The room was decorated with white and pink flowers. The Ladies Aid of the church assisted in the kitchen.

Relatives and friends coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson of The Dalles, John Benchick and children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorhees and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Crawford and daughters of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Vernice Crawford and family of Helix, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Doherty of Pendleton and John Doherty of La Grande. Several attended from Ione.

For going away the bride wore a royal duchess suit, white accessories and a white orchid. After a short honeymoon the young couple will live in Heppner. They are both graduates of the Ione schools. Mr. Crawford will leave for the service the last of the month.
