Mrs. Elaine Morris, State president of Poppy Day, announces that the sale of the poppy will begin May 22. She states that it is a project with the designated objective of honoring the war dead and providing a living remembrance to the families of those valiant men. These poppies are made by disabled veterans in the hospitals. Veteran with the opportunity to make poppies have a source of income as they realize two cents for each poppy they make. It is valuable as occupational therapy, a requisite to rehabilitation as the employment keeps the hands and minds busy. The American Legion spends the entire proceeds of the sales for use for rehabilitation of the veteran and his family. The members serve as unpaid sales women. They are assisted by the Junior members. A window will be decorated in a business house here.
