German Exchange Student Speaks At Soroptimist Meeting

Gernot Raue, exchange student from Berlin, Germany who is attending Roosevelt high school in Portland, was the guest speaker at the Soroptimist luncheon meeting Thursday May 14.

He was introduced by Mrs. Wesley Gotcher of Portland with whom he is making his home this school year.

Raue told of the purpose of the exchange student system, which is to leave some of Germany here and take some of the United States home with him. 1500 students in Germany applied for United States scholarships and only 28 were granted. He told of the difference in the school systems and also said the United States occupation forces are very highly thought of in Berlin.

The tea honoring the Senior high school girls and their mothers will be Sunday May 24 at the home of Leta Humphreys.

Guests of the club besides Mrs. Gotcher and Raue were Mary Ann Jensen, Peggy Wightman, Mike Grant, Jim Wightman and John Mollahan all high school students and Mrs. Orville Smith and Mrs. Howard Bryant.

Becket, installing chaplain; Jaunita Carmichael, installing organist.

Notsons Speakers At Union Missionary Spring Meeting

The spring meeting of the Union Missionary Society was held Wednesday afternoon, May 13th, at the First Christian Church with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Notson as guest speakers. The Notsons are on a year's leave of absence from their missionary district in the Philippine Islands.

Rev. Notson, a former Heppnerite, has been in foreign missionary service for the past several years. During the course of their discussions, they gave a graphic word picture of life in the islands and of the natives. Rev. and Mrs. Notson were attired in native costumes of the upper class of Philippine, such as is worn on formal occasions. The costumes were hand-made and presented to them on their departure for the United States.

Following the meeting Rev. Notson showed films of the Islands and of their mission in particular. After this, refreshments were served in the fireplace room of the church parlors.

Mrs. R. B. Rice and Mrs. Whitmer Wright poured. Mrs. Anna Smouse, Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Floyd N. Adams were in charge of refreshments. Mrs. Harvey Willhite is president of the Union Missionary Society this year. The next meeting will be held in the early fall at the Methodist church.

New Officers Seated By Heppner P-TA

The Heppner P-TA met Wednesday May 13 at the school. Installation of officers was held during the business meeting with Rev. Earl Soward installed as the president; Mrs. L. E. Dick, Jr., vice president; Mrs. B. J. Mickelsen, secretary; Clarence Johnson, treasurer.

Leonard Pate was presented with a gift for his service with the P-TA.

The program consisted of the Home Economics girls style show under the direction of Miss Katherine Monahan. During the show musical numbers were presented by Monte Fast, Skip Rhul, Darlene Connor and Judy Barger.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Longfellow of Burns were over night guests Thursday of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Reeves. Rev. Longfellow is the Episcopal Rector at Burns.

Many Hear Sunday Piano Recital

A large audience enjoyed the piano recital of Mrs. Lucille Owens pupils Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church. Appearing on the program, which was presented in groups of composer's music from countries around the world, were Helen Graham, Janet Wightman, Mary Ruth Green, Barbara Dobbie and Jean Marie Graham.

Special numbers were given by Mrs. Lucy Peterson, vocalist, and Mrs. Tom Wilson, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Lyngholm who also played incidental music preceding the recital.

A tea followed in the church parlors with Mrs. Howard Bryant and Mrs. Harvey Willhite pouring. Spring flowers decorated the table and the rooms. Mrs. E. J. Dobbie, Mrs. Cornet Green, Mrs. Claude Graham and Mrs. Marvin Wightman were hostesses at the tea.

Ida Lee Chapel Entertains Seniors

Ida Lee Chapel entertained the senior class with a party at her farm home near Hardman last Wednesday evening May 13.

The evening was spent dancing and roasting marshmallows and wieners. A fortune teller was present to tell the past, present and future of each person who wished to know.

Mrs. Luola Bengtson, senior class advisor, and Miss Donna Neal, health instructor, were the chaperones.

Refreshments were served at the close of the party.

Family Reunion Honors Mrs. Ritchie

WE CAN TE KA CAMPFIRE GIRLS ELECT

The Campfire Girls have been very busy the last few weeks, getting work completed for the year.

Mr. Wilson gave us some scotch pine seedlings and Nels Anderson gave us some Caragana seedlings to plant.

Mr. Wilson showed us three interesting movies on our birthday topic "Down To Earth". He also gave us reading material. The Movies were "The Golden Secret", "Farm Animals" and "The Little Raindrop".

Several have received their beads, and most of us are ready to hand in our record sheets, so we can order the rest of our beads.

We joined the Blue Birds in making and filling May Baskets for the patients at the hospital.

Our plans to raise money by having a mint sale had to be dropped because there weren't enough parents who had time just now to help us. We will try again next fall.

At our last meeting we elected officers to serve through the summer and early fall. Elected will take office next week. President, Kay Keithley; vice president, Carol K. Anderson; secretary,

Roll Call Sunday. The pastor will speak on "Called of God."

The Crusader class will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Jones for their potluck dinner and picnic. In case of rain the church dining room will be used. Evening services are dismissed for this Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rickerson, missionaries to Okanawa, will show pictures and talk on what is being done since World War II at 8 p. m. Thursday, May 28.

IONE LIVESTOCK CLUB

The Ione Livestock club met at Dick Ekstrom's home May 17 at 2:30 p. m.

The meeting was called to order by our president Duane Baker. The minutes were read and approved. We discussed the dance we are planning to have to raise money for the club treasure. We decided to have it June 27 on Mary Johnston; treasurer, Sharon Case; scribe, Connie Anderson.

Connie will remain our publisher for awhile. We will not meet regularly all summer.

Some of us plan to go to summer camp.

Carol K. Anderson, scribe

Saturday. Transportation for The Dalles show was discussed. Lloyd Howton is to take the beef down and Herman Blettel is to take the sheep and swine.

After the meeting was adjourned we judged and fitted beef and sheep.

There were 9 members present. Refreshments were served.

Mardine Baker, reporter.

THE STITCHERETTES

The Stitcherettes had a meeting on May 9 at our leaders place, Mrs. Ruth McCabe.

We worked on our different projects. One member learned how to put a zipper in.

Ann Coleman, Reporter.
