1

No other light truck in America can give you the power... the economy... the unbelievable, rugged performance of these Willys Trucks with the background of the world-famous 'Jeep'.

The sensational Hurricane F-head engine now has 20% power increase—and a notable decrease in gas use. Compression ratio is 7.4 to 1, using regular gas. Selective gear ratio gives you 6 speeds forward and 2 reverse.

The 4-Wheel-Drive Willys Truck stops road and weather worries. You load up—get in and go. That's all! You'll get to your destination—on time—because, not two, but all four wheels drive the truck through the most brutal kind of thick, sticky clay, mud... heavy, loose sand... deep-drifted snow—or over rocky trails and prairies where no other conventional truck would dare venture. Many buy this as an extra vehicle for this big feature alone.

3

It's hard to believe unless you see it, but 4-wheel drive enables this Willys Truck to climb 48% grades like a mountain goat. You shift from 2-wheel drive to 4-wheel drive as you need it.

4

Back of the roomy cab is a steel pick-up box mounted on a rugged chassis with a sturdy steel girder frame designed for hard service—stands up under the toughest conditions of road or cross-country hauling.
