

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday June 18, 1953

Shower Honors Mrs. Holtz In Lone Tuesday

By E. Ho Palmateer

A stork shower was given in honor of Mrs. Elmer Holtz at the Community Church basement on Tuesday June 9. She received many lovely gifts. A program was given which consisted of songs, Rock a Bye Baby and The Doggie in the Window by Marjorie and Terry O'Connor, Kathleen Martin, Cheryl Lundell and Susan Lindstrom. They were accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse on the violin and Mrs. Cleo Drake on the piano. Tea, coffee and cake were served from a table decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Walter Jepsen and Mrs. Clarence Holtz poured. The hostesses were: Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Berl Akers, Mrs. Wallace Matthews, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. Merle Baker, Mrs. Noel Dobyns and Mrs. James Barnett.

The Maranatha club met at the Community Church basement on Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting cake and coffee were served. It was a no hostess affair.

The Masonic hall is being painted inside. Mrs. Winnefred Zinter and son, William, and grand daughter, Lois Messenger, were recent visitors in Spokane.

Members of the Birthday Club met at the home of Mrs. Elsie Peterson, in Lexington Friday June 12. Mrs. Sam Esteb and Mrs. Wayne White were the honorees. Games were played and refreshments of ice cream cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Harry Yarnell received the door prize. Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Lewis ball were the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. White, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne White and Mrs. Imogene Mooney attended the Pioneer Picnic at Bickleton, Wash. Saturday.

Mrs. Jalmer Koski and daughter, Millie Jane, of Vashon, Wash., and Mrs. Ted Hall of South Bend, Wash., are visiting here. They are nieces of Mrs. Frank Engleman, Mrs. Arilla Swanson and Mrs. Edith Nicholson, and G. A. Petseys. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann met them at Pasco Wednesday of last week.

Miss Alice Nicholson of Portland spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Edith Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn returned home last week from a trip south. They visited at Reno, Lake Tahoe, Yosemite Park, Los Angeles and Tiajuana, Mexico. On their way home they stopped at San Francisco. In Salem they visited Laxton McMurray and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan; and in Milwaukie they stopped at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell. At Gold Hill, Calif., the children enjoyed panning gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and daughters left Tuesday of last week for Portland where Mr. O'Connor attended the Masonic convention.

Mrs. Roy Lindstrom and children visited relatives and took in the Rose Festival in Portland last week. Mr. Lindstrom drove down after them the last of the week.

Dates to remember: June 19—H. E. C. of Willows Grange.

June 20—Grange meeting at 8 p. m.

June 20—Dance at the Legion hall.

June 21—Strawberry feed at the Masonic hall. All Masons and their families and members of the Eastern Star and their families, are invited at 5 p. m.

June 26—Three Links club meeting.

Those from here attending the 4-H summer school at Corvallis this week are Sue Coleman, Billy Seehafer, Jean Ann Swanson, Grace McCabe, Jerald Rea, Dick Ekstrom, Alvin McCabe and Wayne Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. James Lindsay and Mrs. Sam McMillan attended the grand chapter of the Eastern Star in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ray returned home last week from Lyle and Husum, Wash., where they visited relatives. They also made a trip on to Mt. Hood highway and went to Timber Line lodge.

Janet Howton and Virginia Jepsen attended the Girl's State at Salem the past week. The girls were elected to go by the American Legion auxiliary.

Those attending the 4-H Fat Stock show in The Dalles last week were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bietell and son, Bill Brannon, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Howton and family. Those entering stock and receiving prizes were Dick Ekstrom entered two calves and received 1st on one and a high 2nd on the other; Bill Brannon got 1st on a hog, 1st on a sheep, and 2nd on a calf; Mardene Baker got 1st on her two lambs; Janet Howton got 2nd on her calf and John Howton 2nd on his calf. Duane Baker, Dick Ekstrom and Jerald Rea received first on judging; Bill Brannon and Duane Baker competed in champion hog and beef showmen. Duane Baker got 1st on his two calves.

Around 113 men and boys registered at the Father-Son banquet at the grange hall Sunday evening. The food was served by the ladies of the H. E. C. of the grange and young girls dressed in Western garb waited on the tables which were decorated in the Western theme. The program, with Gene Rietmann as master of ceremonies, consisted of the invocation by Rev. A. Shirley, Welcome to fathers by Gene Rietmann, response by Omar Rietmann, a reading, The Job of Being a Dad, by Berl Akers, a talk on fathers and sons by Rev. A. Shirley, a reading, When Father Was a Boy, by Wayne Ball, two accordion solos by Malcolm McKinney, musical numbers by Dennis Swanson, Larry Rietmann and Gene Rietmann, and a skit by high school students. Harold Dobyns showed movies of his boat trips on the Salmon River in Idaho, on the Owyhee and John Day in Oregon, of the Pendleton Round Up and coyote hunting and trapping in Morrow county and the Jordan valley.

Fathers receiving prizes were, fathers with birthday nearest to June 21, Donald Heliker, son having birthday nearest June 21, John Barstow; father with sons with most difference in age of oldest and youngest, Lewis Ball; youngest son Johnny McCabe; father with the most grandsons, E. R. Lundell.

Mrs. Jerry Bolman drove up from San Jose, Calif. Sunday and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker. Mr. Bolman flew to Chicago and is attending the American Newspaper Publishers Association convention in Milwaukee, Wis., and will visit publishing companies in Duluth and St. Paul before coming to Ione next week. He is in the publishing business in San Jose.

Mrs. W. G. Seehafer and daughter, Bill Brannon got 1st on a hog, 1st

Wash., are visiting here this week.

Keith Roundy returned to his home in Kennewick, Wash., last week, his uncle John Bryson, took him home.

Barbara and Shirley Peck who have been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buschke at Morgan, returned to their home at Scio with Louis Buschke Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Swanson and daughter, Mrs. Robert Atkinson of Walla Walla spent the weekend here with relatives. Mrs. Etta Bristow returned home with them. Mrs. Bristow and Mrs. Swanson are sisters.

College students home on vacation are: University of Oregon, Helmuth Hermann; Oregon State college, John Bristow and Elise Bauernflend; E. O. C. E. Ruby Ann Rietmann; Washington State college, Ronald Baker; Pacific Lutheran college, Gerald Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wate Crawford, Earl Morgan and Oscar Peterson returned from Medford Saturday where they attended the State Grange convention. They reported a very successful convention.

Roy and Arthur, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom returned home Monday from Portland where they took in the Rose Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorger of Pendleton went to Chicago to attend the wedding of his niece, Miss Charlotte Ramsey, Saturday June 13. Mr. Gorger gave his niece away in marriage.

Little Trudy Ritchie of Hermiston spent the weekend with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom.

The Merle Bakers are having two bedrooms built on their house on main street. (Continued on Page Four)

Comfort with a "See" Capital

Aero Willlys

Illustrated: Aero-Falcon

See the luxurious, color-blended interior . . . the seating width of over 5 feet front and rear . . . the immense panoramic view from inside. See all 4 tenders from the driver's seat and note the racy, rakish lines of this Aero Willys . . . rated above all other cars as the safest car . . . the best handling car (by Motor Trend Magazine) and next to Cadillac as "the car of the year".

See it and drive it today.

Farley Motor Company

DON'T FORGET

TO REMEMBER DAD

ON

SUNDAY, JUNE 21

Wilson's Men's Wear

The Store of Personal Service

Special Notice to County Wheat Growers

Dr. Schaefer is shown here making snow in a home freezer in the General Electric laboratory. This was one of the major experiments which proved that weather modification was feasible.

Dr. Vincent J. Schaefer

General Electric Research Laboratory Weather Scientist

WILL SPEAK AT THE

ANNUAL MEETING

OF

Tri-County Weather Research Inc.

Tues., June 30--Igo Grange Hall, Condon

Dr. Schaefer, the man who discovered the method for producing snow and rain for the General Electric Company, and who is recognized as outstanding for his contributions to the science of meteorology, will be one of the main speakers at the annual meeting June 30.

The General Electric company is in no way connected with any weather development company but is doing continuing work on weather research, which places Dr. Schaefer as one of the best informed men in America in this field.

In addition Dr. Fred Decker of the OSC physics department will report on precipitation and and the techniques which will be used this year in preparing a final report on evaluation studies.

This meeting is of vital importance to all ranchers and all are urged to attend and to take part. Directors will be elected, and there will be NO SOLICITATION at this meeting which will start at 10:00 a. m. at the Igo Grange hall, 5 miles west of Condon.

Morrow Co. Weather Research

A MEMBER OF TRI-COUNTY WEATHER RESEARCH, INC.