Hager-Monahan Vows Read Sunday Morning

Miss Katherine Monahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Monahan, became the bride of Homer E. Hager, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Osmin Hager, at an 8:30 o'clock ceremony Saturday morn-ing at St. Patrick's Roman Catho-lic Church in Heppner with the Rev. Francis McCormack reading the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk suit trim-med in white with white acces-sories and a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Frank M. Monahan, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a bige suit of silk and orlon with con-tracting accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bride's bro-ther, Frank M. Monahan, was best man.

Miss Marguerite Glavey played the wedding music. The altars of the church were beautifully de-corated with a profusion of white flowers.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Sr. were hosts for a wedding break-fast for the members of the im-mediate families. This was held in the dining room of the O'Don-nell Cafe. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wed-ding cake. Bouquets of bouvar-dia in silver vases were used as centerpieces for the other tables in the room.

Following a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Hager will continue to make their home in Heppner where Mrs. Hager is a teacher in the high school and he works on the Frank Anderson farm in the Eightmile section.

Relatives coming from a dis-tance for the wedding were Lt. Col. and Mrs. Clayton Shaw and sons of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Monahan and sons, Bob, Joe and Wayne of Condon.
