Tasty Platter Partners

Attractive and mighty good eating is the combination of canned asparagus served with a tart, lemon Normandy Sauce and good thick pork chops.

Enjoy the convenience and variety of flavorsome canned vegetables. Budget watchers will especially appreciate finding that prices have remained low. In fact, the canned food dollar today is worth more than other food dollars. So reach for a canned vegetable to round out the meal.

Asparagus Normandy With Pork Chops
 1 No. 2 can asparagus spears 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 Light cream 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco 2 tablespoons butter, or 1/2 salt and pepper margarine 4 pork chops
 2 tablespoons flour 1 hard cooked egg

Drain liquid from asparagus and boil down to about a third. Add enough cream to make 1 cup liquid. Melt butter and stir in flour. Add liquid and cook until thickened, stirring. Remove from heat and add lemon juice, Tabasco and seasonings to taste. Arrange heated asparagus and cooked chops on platter. Top asparagus with sauce and garnish with sliced egg. Four servings.
