SUMMONS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF MORROW. HOWARD KEITHLEY and ERMA KEITHLEY, husband and wife,

Lemon Mint Juleps Beat the Heat
When the temperature soars and all summer breezes blow hot, it's time to cool off with a frosty pitcher of Lemon Mint Juleps. This beverage is a wonderful pepper-upper for that mid-afternoon summer wilted feeling and equally refreshing for sipping through warm evenings. All lemon drinks pep you up in the heat because lemons contain so much vitamin C—the nutrient which helps restore your pep and vitality that disappear so fast during the summer. To make the lemon juleps seem more gala, frost the rims of the glasses as well as the mint. When you're squeezing lemons for the beverage, pour several teaspoons of the juice into a shallow saucer. Dip the rim of each glass into lemon juice, then into granulated sugar. Let the glasses stand, right side up, while you're mixing the lemonade. For every lemon julep, allow approximately one lemon and two tablespoons of sugar (more or less, depending on the sweetness you desire). For a pitcher of Lemon Mint Juleps, crush several sprigs of mint with the juice of six lemons plus one and one-half cups sugar. Stir well; add six cups cold water and lots of ice cubes. Use thin slices of lemons and mint leaves dipped in sugar as perky garnishes.
