THIRTY YEARS AGO

From files of The Gazette Times July 19, 1923
Ralph Thompson, who was in the city Monday states that while it has been his luck to have every cutting of his hay thoroughly wet this season, yet he thinks but little damage has been done.

Frank S. Parker has taken over the lease on the Dutton place adjoining his farm and will harvest the crop this season.

W. P. Mahoney and family and Mrs. K. K. Mahoney who have been absent for the past ten days or more on a visit to Bonners Ferry, Idaho and Spokane, Washington arrived home late last evening.

Fire destroyed about 300 acres of wheat belonging to Mark Weatherford on Shutter Flat Monday afternoon.

Misses Doris Logan of Heppner and Ester Logan of Ione were guests of Miss Georgia Summers at the Last Camp for a few days before leaving for their respective homes on Wednesday.

Neal Penland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penland, left Saturday morning with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Neal of Coos Bay, for a visit with them.
