

Teachers Are Named at Ione; Being Readied for Fall

By Echo Palmateer

Following teachers have been named in the Ione schools: Mrs. James Mallon will teach 1st and 2nd grades and Mr. and Mrs. 7th and 8th grades; Rena Akers of Hattiesburg, Miss. will teach 3rd and 4th grades and Mrs. Ely the 5th and 6th. In the high school, Chesvard of Portland will be principal and will teach; David Raskin of Minn. will be his assistant and music; Eugene Gerhke of physical education and Grant Bigby of Palouse, advanced science and Miss Annajean Knighten of Ione, English, girl's physical education and homemaking; Ina Winecoff of Salem will be commercial. School will open Sept. 7.

Superintendent Ward states he would like to meet with parents of Ione some time before school starts to give out general information on the policies of the school to the public. The meeting will be held at the school on Saturday, July 25.

Ward states that his office will be open to the public at any time for anyone. A week before school opens he would like to size that his office will be open for pre-registration conference with the students. Plans are underway for the organization of equipment of the new school and it is hoped that by the fall a fine dedication will be held and all the organizations of the town will take part.

Ward wishes to extend his appreciation to the people of Ione for the kindness and friendliness shown him.

E. M. Baker, Mrs. Omar Gunn, Mrs. Ernest Heliker and Mrs. Echo Palmateer attended Extension Unit luncheon at the carnival room at the hotel in Pendleton Saturday. The speakers were Mrs.

Harold Wells from Lancashire, England; Miss Jennie Williams, president of the National Home Demonstration Council of Banner, Wyo.; and Mrs. Ruth Simmelink, president of the Washington Homemakers Council of Kennewick, Wash. Mrs. Henry Kopacz of Hermiston was the hostess.

Kisses Are Ever Popular!

THERE'S FUN AND GOOD EATING FOR THE YOUNG and the young in heart when they follow this new recipe for delectable Crispy Kisses. These cookies call for a popular candy-coated puffed wheat, which comes in a practical, handy carton, gayly marked and specially wrapped with aluminum foil for added protection. Chock-full of chocolate chips and delightfully sweetened wheat puffs, these kisses of the culinary variety are a cross between cake and candy. Kids—and you too—will love them!

CRISPY KISSES

2 eggs
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 cup sugar
1 package chocolate chips
2 cups candy-coated puffed wheat
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg whites until foamy throughout; then add salt and cream of tartar and continue beating until stiff enough to hold up in peaks, but not dry. Add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Fold in chocolate chips, candy-coated puffed wheat, and vanilla. Drop from teaspoon on ungreased heavy paper. Bake in slow oven (300°F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Remove from paper while slightly warm. Makes about 3 doz. kisses. (ANS Features)

Saturday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Melena, George Ely, Mrs. James Lindsay, Mrs. Sam McMillan, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mrs. W. A. Ruggles. The meeting was for the constitution of their chapter and installation of officers. The Grand Officers of Oregon conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Phil Griffin and Mrs. Lana Padberg were Pendleton visitors Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Conklin and sons, of Baker, were visitors at the E. W. Bristow home last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Crawford Jr. and daughters, of Portland, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Ida Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Morgason and son of Spokane are living at the Ernest Helikers. He is the swimming pool contractor.

Mrs. Ida Grabell and son, Gene, returned home Saturday from Baker where they spent two weeks with relatives. Marlene Crawford, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford, fell from her tricycle Friday evening of last week and injured her mouth, loosening three front teeth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow entertained the following guests at a dinner and card party at their
