From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Harvesting a Better America

Rubbed my eyes yesterday when I saw Hap Jackson's truck in Biff Morgan's alfalfa field... helping Biff get in his cutting.

Since they've been carrying on a friendly argument for years (over how much fertilizer to use per acre of alfalfa), I had to ask Hap what was going on.

"Got my own crop in safely last week," he says. "And since Biff's boy is at the summer encampment of the National Guard, I figured the least I could do was to help him out. After all," Hap went on, "there's no argument over how important the National Guard is to all of us."

From where I sit, a fellow like me, who's too old to get in the Guard, can still vote, do a turn at jury duty, and respect others' rights. Even a little thing like respecting a neighbor's right to have, say, beer or buttermilk at dinner is important if we want to keep America strong. We have to be on "guard" in more ways than one these days!

Just A Reminder

... That if you will send your Rodeo and Back-to-school clothes to us now, rather than wait until the last minute it will enable us to do a better job of cleaning them, and you are assured of having them back ready to wear when you need them.

Right now is our slack season and we are able to give you better service; often just before Rodeo it is impossible for us to handle the load and still return your garments on short notice. Just give us a call... we'll be glad to pickup your cleaning.
