Humphreys, Kennewick, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Abbott, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham, Jean Marie and Helen; John Wightman, Bob Wightman, Peggy, Marvin, Jim and Janet Wightman and the host and hostess.

WSCS Holds Meeting At Walter Becket's

Twenty-four members and friends of the WSCS met at Mrs. Walter Becket's home on Wednesday of last week with Mrs. Charles Becket as co-hostess.

These ladies have been working for over a year on the renovation of the Methodist parsonage in Heppner. This summer they had hardwood floors laid throughout the downstairs and now are planning to put new walls and fixtures in the bath room.

Money realized from the sale of lunches, punch and coffee during Friday of Fair week at the pavilion will go towards this latest project.

From The County Agent's Office

By N. C. Anderson

The twenty-seventh annual Oregon Ram sale will be held at Pendleton on Monday, August 17. Two hundred and eighty selected rams of the Rambouillet, Lincoln, Columbia, Corriedale, Suffolk, and Hampshire breeds will be sold. The sale starts at 10:00 a. m. The auctioneer is Earl O. Walter, of Filer, Idaho. The sale is sponsored by the Oregon Wool Growers Association.

A weed survey last week showed that many Morrow county farms are infested now with St. Johnswort, or goat weed. This weed is one that has been found in neighboring counties for some time, however, it has been confined to a very small area in Morrow county until the last year or two. It is found on several ranches now in the Buttercreek area, and has worked itself into the Hinton Creek area only in recent years. It is a perennial

Luncheon Club Holds Buffet Dinner Party

Members of the 4-H Luncheon club served a buffet dinner Monday evening August 10 at the residence of Ida Sue Stratton.

All the food was prepared by members of the club. Girls preparing the food were Joann Keithley, Barbara Warren, Virginia Andresen, Roberta Hanna, and Ida Sue Stratton.

The buffet table was laid with a white cloth and the decorations were blue candles and red holly-hocks.

Mrs. Harold Erwin, 4-H leader, assisted the members with the dinner.

Later a business meeting was held at which time it was decided to have a booth at the fair and one or more demonstration teams. Tentative plans were made for a birthday party and Joann Keithley and Virginia Andresen were appointed to work out the details.

Guests for the evening besides members were Mrs. Theta Stratton, Mrs. Maud Casswell and Janice Beamer.

YOUTH GROUP MEETS

The International Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church held a party and organization meeting Friday evening August 7.

Officers elected were Phyllis Quackenbush, president; Kay Keithley, vice president; Carolyn McDaniels, secretary; Celia Boulden, commissioner of fellowship.

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year again—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. It's plain to see that Chevrolet trucks out-sell all others because they out-value all others!

For the best buy — buy now!

When truck users show a continued preference for one particular make of truck, you can be sure that preference is based on a single sound reason: It's the best buy!

Year after year, truck users in every field show a clear-cut preference for Chevrolet trucks by buying more of them than any other make.

Why not drop in and see why so many more truck buyers choose Chevrolet? You'll find, as they have, that Chevrolet trucks offer more of the features and advantages you want . . . more solid value in every way . . . yet it's the lowest-priced truck line of all!
